Four Killed, Many Hurt in Train Wreck

Kansas City-Florida Special Derailed in Accident in Arkansas

MARKED TREE, Ark. (AP) — At least four persons were killed and an undetermined number injured when the Frisco's Kansas City-Florida Special passenger train was wrecked near here today.

The dead are: Mrs. Edith Randall Rinker, 25, of Macon, Ga., and her child, Glen, 1½; Patricia Jane Crawford, age unknown, of Kansas City, Kans., and the train chef, William Richards, 56, of Bonner Springs, Kan., a Negro.

Three persons reported critically injured were taken to a Memphis hospital. Other injured were taken to Jonesboro, Ark., and other nearby towns and still others were treated at an emergency hospital here.

The accident occurred when the next to last car of the train, a sleeping car, jumped the track and struck two freight cars on a siding.

A dining car was pulled off the track. The front end of the dining car and the back end of the sleeping car were caved in.

The standing freight cars were shoved down an embankment.

Aside from the diner and the one passenger car, remainder of the train remained on the track.

The two cars involved did not turn over.

The Rev. H. J. Couchman, pastor of a Methodist church near the scene, heard the crash.

With the aid of his wife and the church janitor, he started summoning aid, including women parishioners of the church, who helped in establishing an emergency hospital in a church building.

The Rev. Mr. Couchman estimated that besides those injured

Dr. Lee Can't Buy House

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Dr. Sam Lee, world-famed Korean-American who twice won an Olympic diving championship, has twice been refused purchase of a home in Garden Grove, the Chronicle said today in a copyrighted story.

Real estate operators in southern California's Orange County refused to sell to Lee, now a U.S. Army major, because of his Korean ancestry, the Chronicle said.

Lee announced several months ago he planned to practice in the area after he retires this fall. He is an eye, ear and nose specialist in the Army Medical Corps.

Final Witness Balks, Too

Man Cites 5 Amendments In Defying Red Probers

NEW YORK (AP)—A public relations man has cited five amendments to the Constitution in refusing to answer questions before the House Un-American Activities subcommittee probing Communist influence in the entertainment world.

Ivan Black, 53, appeared as one of the final witnesses Thursday in the windup session of the subcommittee hearings headed by Rep. Francis E. Walter (D-Pa.). The committee heard 23 witnesses in four days.

Carries Constitution
Black, once a Broadway press agent and now a public relations consultant to industrial firms, carried a copy of the U.S. Constitution as he took the witness stand.

While a Broadway publicity man, Black said, he was once known as the "No. 1 Starmaker" through his publicizing of theatrical people.

When asked whether he had been a member of the Patrick Henry Communist Club of New York City about 1936, Black—refusing to answer—invoked the First, Fifth, Sixth and 14th amendments.

Harold J. Salemson, 44, a former film importer and former Hollywood free lance writer, denied being a Communist but refused to comment on his associations or beliefs prior to July 1, 1948. He invoked the First (freedom of speech) and Fifth (involving possible self-incrimination) amendments.

Of the other amendments cited, the sixth relates to the right of a speedy public trial, and the 10th reserves to the states powers not delegated to the federal government.

David Kanter, 46, production stage manager, was the final witness.

Offered Immunity
Frank S. Tavenner Jr., committee counsel, read from minutes of the Aug. 1 closed session in Washington at which the question of possible immunity for Kanter had been raised.

"That offer of the committee stands good today," Tavenner said.

Kanter rejected the offer, saying, "Sir, I must tell you that I must take the same position that I took before."

Walter, summing up the hearings after adjournment, said: "I am sure the people of this community now have a picture of how innocent people are enlisted into the Communist conspiracy."

Walter also disclosed that Elizabeth Bentley, self-admitted former Russian spy ring courier, had been hired by the committee two weeks ago as a paid consultant.

He said her job was temporary and would last about another month. Her salary is $50 monthly.

Walter has said that hearings would resume in Washington in about a month.

Sgt. Gallagher Is Found Guilty
Mistreated Fellow POWs, Court Finds

NEW YORK (AP)—A court-martial today found Sgt. James C. Gallagher guilty of four charges involving unpremeditated murders, mistreatment and informing on fellow Korean War prisoners and collaborating with the Chinese Reds.

Gallagher, 23, of Brooklyn, was accused of throwing three Americans from a prison camp hut into frigid outside temperatures and leaving them to die.

The eight-man court announced its verdict at 12:15 p.m. after almost five hours of deliberation.

Unpremeditated murder is the equivalent of second degree murder. The maximum penalty is life imprisonment at hard labor.

Gallagher was not sentenced immediately.

At Least 22 Die in Storm; Damage High

Pennsylvania Hardest Hit; Jersey, New York, New England Affected

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Rain-swollen rivers and creeks boiled over into torrential floods that cut a swath of death and destruction today through nine states and the District of Columbia.

The number who died from the fury of the storm that swept northeastward after hurricane Diane spent itself reached 22—14 in Pennsylvania, 1 in Virginia, 3 in Vermont, 1 in Rhode Island, and 3 in Massachusetts.

Nine-Inch Rainfall
The rains, measuring as much as nine inches in some areas, overflowed rivers and isolated thousands in their homes, on the highways, in camping resorts, even on trains.

Damage was estimated in the millions.

Hardest hit were eastern Pennsylvania, southeastern New York and New Jersey.

But flood waters swept also wide areas of Virginia, Maryland, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Vermont, Rhode Island and the District of Columbia.

The Air Force and the Navy pressed helicopters into service to rescue persons stranded by the treacherous tide.

The major rivers involved were the Schuylkill and Delaware in Pennsylvania, the Delaware and Ramapo in New Jersey, the Delaware and Neversink in New York, the Potomac in Virginia, District of Columbia and Maryland, the Westfield in Massachusetts, and the Naugatuck and Mad in Connecticut.

Hundreds of Creeks Flooded
Hundreds of other small streams and creeks overflowed as the heavy rains fell throughout the night.

Tahawqua, in the heart of Pennsylvania's anthracite district, took on something of the appearance of a ghost town when the Schuylkill churned over its banks for the first time in 52 years in that area and dumped tons of muddy water into the city. Tahawqua was without power and telephone service until dawn. Details of state police still stood guard around the region.

Other Pennsylvania cities were isolated as streams in the Pocono Mountains poured water into the Schuylkill and washed out most of the roads. These included Scranton, Pottsville, Allentown, Reading and Bethlehem.

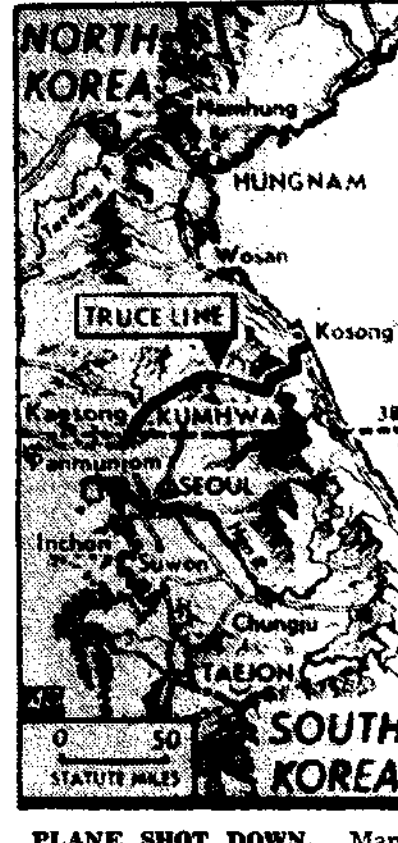

Two Lackawanna Railroad trains carrying more than 300 persons were stranded in the Poconos by washouts. Army helicopters rushed to evacuate them.

Boats sped to two island camps in the Delaware River to take off 850 boys and girls marooned by rising waters.

Airlifts Save Campers
Helicopter airlifts worked swiftly to rescue campers and summer resort patrons caught by the floods that inundated a wide area of southeastern New York, around Port Jervis and Sparrowbush.

Air Force helicopters evacuated 75 children from Jubilee Beach.

U.N. Command Demands Reds Return Airmen

Fate of 2 Men Involved In Crash Isn't Known; Communists Are Mute

MUNSAN, Korea, (AP) — The U.N. Command tonight called an urgent meeting of the Military Armistice Commission to demand the return of the pilot and passenger of a U.S. training plane shot down by the Communists Wednesday.

The meeting was called for 10 a.m. Saturday (8 p.m.) Friday, EST.

The communists agreed to the meeting.

The Pentagon in Washington today identified the two as Air Force 2nd Lt. Guy H. Bumpass Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy H. Bumpass of Jackson, Miss., and Army Capt. Charles W. Brown, husband of Mrs. Agnes E. Brown, West Louisville, Ky., and son of Mr. Charles V. Brown of Clay, Ky.

The Air Force said that Bumpass was pilot of the plane and Brown was aboard as an observer.

There was still no information on whether the pilot and passenger in the T-6 trainer survived the crash.

The wording of the U.N. request for the commission session seemed to indicate official belief the pair may be alive. They are officially listed as missing.

The small, unarmed craft was caught in a barrage of heavy Communist anti-aircraft fire when it inadvertently flew into the United Nations side of the demilitarized zone Wednesday.

Lawyer Seeks To Free Turncoat Bell on Writ

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—A writ of habeas corpus will be filed for Otto C. Bell, 27, one of three turncoats who changed their minds and returned from Communist China, Bell's attorney said Thursday.

Atty. Robert E. Hannon said he will contend that the Army lacks jurisdiction over Bell, who was dishonorably discharged when he refused to be repatriated from a North Korean prison camp.

Sunk Off Sicily in 413 B.C.

Hulks of Historic Grecian War Fleet Found in Bay

SIRACUSA, Sicily (AP) — Divers have found water-logged hulks of ancient Greek warships off the coast of Siracusa, Sicily, one of the greatest naval defeats of ancient history.

The first skeletal wreckage was sighted this week by men who have been working for almost a month in the silt at the bottom of the broad Bay of Siracusa, on the southeast coast of Sicily.

Wreckage of Trireme
They described the gaunt ribs and sharp prow of what appeared to be an ancient trireme, a galley with three banks of oars. The wooden wreckage crumbled at their touch.

"There can be no doubt," said Prof. Luigi Barnard Brea, director of the Siracusa Historical Museum, "that the wreckage is from the Athenian fleet that besieged ancient Siracusa.

"We stand at the threshold of a discovery of perhaps the most ancient warships ever found on earth."

Finds Old Pottery
The search for the sunken fleet was started by the Italian navy and the Sicilian Department of Antiquities on clues furnished by Arthur Baker, British consul in Siracusa and an ardent student of Sicilian history.

Last summer Baker figured out from ancient records where the 119 Athenian ships probably were sunk in 413 B. C. He fished around the bottom of the bay 100 yards off the Ortigia Islands and brought back pieces of ancient pottery

Chicago Man Who Shot Two Police Caught

Ex-Con Smoked Out Of Apartment; Had Held Family Captive

CHICAGO (AP)—Chicago's greatest manhunt since the days of gangster John Dillinger ended Thursday night with a 26-year-old cop killer begging:

"Don't shoot, Don't shoot."

Despite the plea, ex-convict Richard Carpenter fought his captors to the end, though unarmed.

He wrestled with policemen who dragged him out of a tear-gas-filled third-floor apartment.

Driven Out by Tear Gas
"No doubt about it. He was driven out by tear gas. The apartment was just loaded with it," said Detective Elwood Zuley, 40, one of the first policemen to grab Carpenter.

Zuley said the fugitive, who within a 72-hour period killed one policeman, critically wounded another and terrorized a family for 23 hours, made an apparent gesture of surrender by sticking both hands out through an open door.

The detective said he grabbed one outstretched hand. Patrolman John Kennedy, 54, grabbed the other. Together they yanked Carpenter into a narrow hallway.

Had Hatred of Cops
The two policemen, aided by several other officers, wrestled Carpenter to the floor to escape a steady stream of gunfire and tear gas shells pouring into the apartment. No gun of Carpenter's was found in the apartment.

Kennedy said the slightly built gunman, described by his mother as harboring a passionate hatred for policemen, battled fiercely when handcuffed. Carpenter was not wounded by police bullets.

But, said Zuley, Carpenter kept pleading: "Don't shoot, Don't shoot."

Diplomatic Ties With Portugal Ended by India

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—India broke her last official links with Portugal today as a result of the killing of Indian marchers into Portuguese India Monday.

Prime Minister Nehru's government ordered Portugal to close its consulates in Bombay, Madras and Calcutta. Reports from Nova Goa, the capital of Portuguese India, said the government there had ordered the Indian consul and his staff to leave.

Other reports from Nova Goa, said 1,500 Indians were massing at the frontier, presumably intending another "peaceful invasion" in support of Nehru's demand that Portugal surrender her Indian territories and permit their merger with the Indian republic.

Leaders of the "free Goa" campaign said today, however, that there were only about 800 waiting to attempt an entry into Goa and all but 70 of these had been asked to return to their homes.

They said the step was taken to avoid further bloodshed and that the 70 will remain as representatives of all Indians demanding the Portuguese retire from India.

Nehru said Thursday 22 marchers were believed killed in the invasion Monday. 225 were wounded and 2 were still missing. The killings set off protest riots and strikes in all major Indian cities.

Additional Bus Starts Monday

South Loop To Include Extension on Silver St.

Addition of another bus to the Marion Bus Lines Monday was announced today by Walter Christian, operator of the lines.

Christian, who began service here Thursday, said the new bus would be used on a south loop-Silver St. run on a one-hour schedule. The bus presently making the north and south loop runs would be used exclusively on the north loop and will provide half-hour service starting Monday.

Christian said the new bus will make the south loop, then make a run over the Silver St. route. He said he would draw up a route and a schedule for the latest operation Saturday.

At present, Christian is operating three buses, two on Center St. and one on the north and south loops. Start of his service Thursday ended a 17-day period when the city was without bus service.

40 May Want To Leave

Chinese Students in U.S. Free To Return Anytime

WASHINGTON (AP)—U.S. officials said today there probably are about 40 Chinese former students still in this country who want to return to Communist China.

But they emphasized that, unlike the 41 Americans held in Red China, the students here are free to leave at any time they wish.

The student issue has been raised by Red China in ambassadorial negotiations at Geneva, where the United States is seeking freedom for Chinese-held Americans.

Officials said they have no exact records even on the number of students still here, much less on their reasons for not leaving. Although some of them once were under restrictions, all have been free to leave since April 8.

Officials say that past experience with the student groups suggests a number of explanations for their remaining: some may not be able to afford a passage back (a law which permitted U.S. payment of their fares expired June 30); some may still be working under contracts which still have some time to run; there may be health considerations in some cases.

The students are not under surveillance and are free to make their own living and departure arrangements. They, like other resident aliens, must check in periodically with the immigration service, but no central file is kept on their activities.

Officials estimate there are still in the United States about 4,500

World-Famous Olympic Champ Snubbed by Town

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Dr. Sam Lee, world-famed Korean-American who twice won an Olympic diving championship, has twice been refused purchase of a home in Garden Grove, the Chronicle said today in a copyrighted story.

Real estate operators in southern California's Orange County refused to sell to Lee, now a U.S. Army major, because of his Korean ancestry, the Chronicle said.

Lee announced several months ago he planned to practice in the area after he retires this fall. He is an eye, ear and nose specialist in the Army Medical Corps.

The Chronicle's Michael Harris said Gordon Tripp, a Garden Grove real estate salesman, told him Lee was refused a $12,000 home because:

"This is a tract home. These people live eight feet apart. These people are not open-minded. If we had a colored or Oriental family here, all hell would be raised.

"I would rather have Dr. Sam Lee here than half the families here, but if you have one—a nice one—then you'll have others, including a little guy from a produce market who smells like hell."

The Lees tried to buy another house for $27,000. The promoter, E. J. Johnston, didn't sell.

"The people right next door moved here from Long Beach because Japanese moved into their neighborhood. I have 10 lots to move. Every cent I've earned since I left the service is in this property."

PRINCESS 25 AUG. 21—WILL SHE WED TOWNSEND? All Britain is awaiting news of Princess Margaret's romance with Capt. Peter Townsend, the 40-year-old divorced commoner she reportedly loves. Townsend, a diplomatic attache in Brussels, was a palace equerry, a reward for RAF heroism.

Speculation Grows As Margaret Nears Her 25th Birthday

LONDON. (AP)—The Big-circulation Daily Mirror clamored today for Princess Margaret to make up her mind once and for all whether she is going to marry Group Capt. Peter Townsend, 40-year-old divorced war hero.

The paper, which claims the largest daily circulation of more than 4½ million, printed a large front-page picture of the radiant princess with this headline: "Come On Margaret!"

Below the portrait was this line: "Please make up your mind."

The Mirror's was only one voice in the growing chorus of speculation and gossip as the pretty princess prepared to celebrate her 25th birthday Sunday in seclusion with the royal family at Balmoral Castle in Scotland.

Once 25, Margaret will be free of the Royal Marriage Act's ban on royal family weddings that do not have the sovereign's approval. It is generally accepted that Townsend, father of two children who divorced his wife for misconduct, is the man of the princess' heart.

Insurance Firm's Stockholders Vote On Proposal Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Stockholders of Midland Mutual Life Insurance Co. are scheduled to vote today on a proposal to mutualize the firm—in effect, turn over control from about 100 stockholders to some 100,000 policyholders.

Ohio State Life Insurance Co., seeking to buy out Midland, has offered $1,000 a share for the stock. The offer is contingent upon Ohio State Life getting proxy control of at least 51 per cent of the stock by 9 a.m. today.

Company officials said Midland stockholders meet at 10 a.m. Ohio State officials said if their firm can get majority control of Midland stock, they can effectively block any move to mutualize the company. Midland directors proposed the mutualization Aug. 2, saying it was called for in the company's charter.

Ohio State Life, with a maximum outlay of roughly three million dollars for Midland's stock, potentially can acquire a company with assets of nearly 100 million dollars and with about 300 million dollars of insurance in force, according to reliable business observers.

The American party is scheduled for two more busy days in Moscow before flying home Sunday.

Contaminated Water Is Blamed in Illness of 55

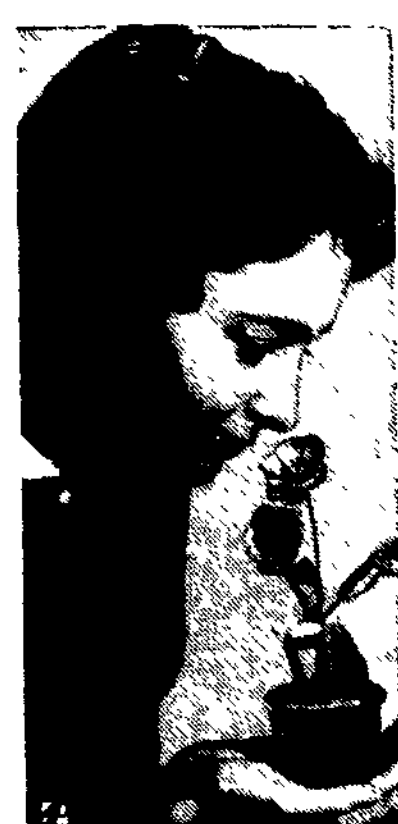

EAST LIVERPOOL, Ohio (AP)—Fifty-five Pennsylvania Railroad track workers became ill yesterday, but all but three of them returned to work today. Railroad officials said contaminated drinking water was believed to have caused the trouble.

Merrill Walker, track supervisor, said workers did not like the taste of city water, so all week trucks have been hauling milk cans filled with spring water. Yesterday was the first day an illness was reported.

The railroad's health department today was testing the spring water. Workers were drinking city water.

CLEVELAND (AP)—Forest City Industries, Inc., has acquired all capital stock of Cleveland-Butler Transit Co., Inc., operator of a motor freight service between Cleveland and Buffalo. The trucking firm will be operated as a subsidiary of Forest City. Cost of the deal was "in excess of $250,000," an official said.

School Heads Called To Statewide Parley

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—R. M. Eymann, state education director, today called for a statewide meeting of superintendents of schools for the purpose of discussing new school legislation.

Representatives of counties, cities and exempted villages will meet here Aug. 30.

Such a meeting has been customary after the close of legislative sessions. All school legislation enacted by the 101st General Assembly will be discussed in two sessions at the state office building.

The new foundation program and legislation providing for the State Board of Education will be key matters discussed, Eymann said.

30 Persons Hurt In Train Accident

RUSSELL, Mass. (AP)—An estimated 30 persons were injured none seriously — when two diesel and four cars of a Chicago-to-Boston train jumped the tracks at a washout Thursday.

Three were hospitalized. Doctors said all would be released today. Authorities said only the fact that the train was traveling a slow 18 miles an hour prevented a major disaster. Seventy-eight passengers were in the eight cars of the New York Central Railroad's Lake Shore Limited.

A baggage car plummeted down an embankment into the Westfield River. One diesel rolled 30 feet to the water's edge and another plunged about halfway down.

Kiwanis Picnic Held

Laxity Charged In Mississippi Murder Probe

Sheriff, Governor Hit For Failure To Act In Shooting of Negro

BROOKHAVEN, Miss., (AP)—Dist. Atty. E. C. Barlow of Lincoln County leveled charges of neglect of duty at Sheriff Bob Case today and accused Mississippi Gov. Hugh White of failure to cooperate in cleaning up election "fraud and corruption."

The charges grew out of an explosive countywide situation which was climaxed last Saturday when a 63-year-old Negro was shot to death on the courthouse lawn.

Barlow denounced Case on grounds that he did not perform his duty in connection with the killing. He said the sheriff "has not turned up one witness to anything" in connection with the shooting of Lamar (Diney) Smith, 63-year-old dog trainer.

Three white men have been charged with murder in the shooting. Each was released on $20,000 bond pending grand jury action next month. They were identified as Neah Smith, 59, Mack Smith, 45, and Charles Falvey, 38, all of Brookhaven.

Barlow said Case "told me he saw Noah Smith leave the scene of the killing with blood all over him. It was his duty to take that man into custody regardless of who he was, but he did not do it."

Smith had reportedly urged other Negroes to cast absentee ballots in the state's gubernatorial race.

Barlow criticized Gov. White for refusing his request for highway patrol aid in investigating the killing.

"The governor said he would do nothing without being requested by the sheriff," Barlow said.

White said he had no authority to send the patrol into any county without the proper request.

Traffic Cases In City Court

Two motorists appeared in Marion Municipal Court Thursday to answer traffic violation charges.

One was Charles F. Rentschler, 22, of 305 Leader St. who was charged with leaving the scene of an accident. He was fined $100 and costs and given a three-year suspension of his driver's license.

The other was Donald L. Papin, 21, of Westerville who was charged with driving with a defective muffler. He was fined $15 and costs but the fine and costs were suspended.

Bragged About Slaying Cop

Killer Was Cocky, Says Family He Held Captive

CHICAGO, (AP)—A burly truck driver and his family today told of 23 hours of terror spent as prisoners of an ex-convict copkiller in their modest second-floor apartment.

But, said Leonard Powell, 31, and his wife Stella, 30, their terror slowly gave way to hate. As the hours ticked away, the fugitive—Richard Carpenter, 26—began to relax. Said Mrs. Powell:

"He began to brag of how he killed one policeman and wounded another. He said he was smarter than they were."

"He acted like a little God."

Forces Way Into Home

The captivity started for the Powells and their two children about 10:15 p.m. Wednesday, about 10 minutes after policeman Clarence Kerr, 26, was shot in a gun duel in a movie house a block away from their apartment at 2040 Potomac Ave., on the northwest side.

Powell said Carpenter, wounded in the thigh, appeared at his home. He was armed with a .38 revolver and blood-spattered—and told him he'd just shot a policeman. He forced himself into the apartment.

The Powell children—Robert, 7, and Diane, 3—were getting ready for bed. Powell said he told them that Carpenter was a friend and he let Mrs. Powell put the children to bed.

Carpenter slumped on a divan and ordered Mr. and Mrs. Powell to sit in chairs opposite him. Powell said. They watched television till about midnight, he said, when Carpenter said, "I've got to get some rest. I wanted to doze, but grasped the gun loosely."

Powell, who is 6 feet 4 and weighs 225 pounds, told a reporter: "I wanted to take him. I wanted to take him real bad. But the kids—I couldn't take a chance they'd get hurt."

Talk With Him

At about 2:30 a.m. Carpenter started talking to the Powells. Powell said he tried to reason with him; tried to convince him it would be best to give himself up to police.

"He told me, 'No, I wouldn't have a chance. I wouldn't last four hours on the street. They don't want me alive.' I couldn't change his mind," Powell said.

He said Carpenter told him to go to work as usual so as to not arouse suspicion. He did. He telephoned home once to his wife, who told him she and the children were safe, but still captive.

"I came home about 6 o'clock and we all ate together. Carpenter was real cocky by then—almost too cocky to be right if you know what I mean—and I guess he figured he could do anything and get away with it."

Powell said Carpenter told the children they could play in the yard. A few minutes later he gave Mrs. Powell permission to sit on the front steps of the building.

"Then I played a long shot," Powell said. "I asked him if I could go and sit on the front steps with her—I do that every evening. I told him. He said okay."

There the Powells discussed a plan of action, he said. Then Mrs. Powell got the children and took them to an uncle's home nearby. Powell waited till they were out of sight, ducked around the building and ran to a cigar store where he telephoned police.

Mrs. Powell left the children at

Killer

"Of course," Zuley added, "no one shot."

Carpenter was quickly hustled into a squad car under heavy guard and taken to the nearby North Avenue police station. Milling crowds shouted "Kill him" as he was taken to the lockup.

He was captured just a block north of the Biltmore Theater where, on Wednesday night, he had critically wounded policeman Clarence Kerr, 26, in a gun duel. Kerr suffered a lung wound while Carpenter suffered a bullet wound in his right thigh.

Kerr had tried to arrest him for the slaying, some 50 hours earlier, of Detective William Murphy, 34, in a subway station. Police said Carpenter admitted slaying Murphy, who had arrested him on a subway train. The young gunman was wanted in connection with a series of robberies.

After shooting Kerr, Carpenter fled the theater safely and ran a block to 2040 Potomac Ave. There, he forced himself into the second-floor apartment of Leonard Powell, 31, a truck driver. Powell's wife Stella, 30, and their children, Robert, 7, and Diane, 3, were present.

Powell quoted the intruder as saying: "I'm Carpenter. I just shot a policeman in the Biltmore Theater. You've got to hide me."

Kept Them Prisoners

From Wednesday night until his capture 23 hours later, Powell said, Carpenter kept his family virtual prisoners. He permitted Powell to go to work Thursday so as not to arouse suspicion.

"He acted like a little God," said Mrs. Powell, recalling the experience. "He was nervous at first. But when he calmed down he began to brag of how he killed one policeman and wounded another. He said he was smarter than they were."

Carpenter's determination not to arouse neighbors' suspicions proved to be his eventual undoing. Their captor, Powell said, allowed the children to go out and play Thursday night and he also permitted Mrs. Powell to sit on the front steps of the apartment building, as was her custom. Once his wife was outside, Powell continued, he asked Carpenter if he might join her. He said it might arouse neighbors' suspicions otherwise.

Once outside, Powell huddled with his wife, momentarily decided on a plan. She took the children and moved out of gun range from the apartment window. Powell scooted out of range also. He ran to a cigar store and called police.

It was only a few minutes later that Carpenter finally was captured, bringing to an end the biggest manhunt since police trapped Dillinger 21 years ago as he emerged from a movie theater. Nearly 500 policemen had been hunting the fugitive.

Parents are the class that gets blamed for the juvenile who turns delinquent, but never gets any credit for those who don't.

Coshocton Man Held for Theft Of Boat Motors

DELAWARE — A 37-year-old Coshocton man is being held here under $2,500 bond for the Delaware County grand jury in connection with the theft of some $3,000 worth of boat motors.

Stanley Jackson of Coshocton is in the county jail here, charged with stealing between 12 and 14 boat motors from the Delaware Dam Reservoir area this summer. Sheriff's deputies said Jackson has been employed at a concession stand in the reservoir area this summer.

Delaware County sheriff's officials said the motors ranged from 3-25 horsepower and were taken from boat docks in the dam area, from yards at residences nearby and from a farm yard. All were taken during the night hours.

The first theft occurred July 15, and the second happened on Aug. 10. Some of the motors were taken from the board docks in the dam area, two were stolen from yards at nearby residences and one was taken from a barn yard on Route 23, south of Delaware, where a boat had been parked overnight.

Jackson is also being held under $150 bond on a conversion charge, deputies reported. While he was employed at a concession stand at the Acme Boat Dock, he reportedly bought two tackle boxes and fishing equipment for himself from a salesman who came to the stand. Officials said he charged the fishing gear costs to the Acme Boat Dock concern.

Calf Stolen, Found

Theft of a calf was reported to the sheriff's office Thursday. The calf was stolen from Willard Fox, a tenant farmer near Prospect who said he heard dogs barking on the farm about 2 a.m. Thursday morning.

The calf was found Thursday evening lying in the driveway of the farm in a burlap sack with its legs tied together.

NEW AIR LINK IN RADAR NETWORK. A new link in the radar network guarding North America is this Navy ZPG-2 picket blimp that carries extremely high-power airborne search radar produced by the General Electric electronics department in Utica, N. Y. The radome beneath the cabin houses the radar antenna, and associated electronic equipment is carried inside the cabin. The blimp can detect low-flying planes over the horizon before the surface radar equipment can.

2 Women Hurt In Automobile Mishaps Here

Two persons were injured in four accidents reported to Marion police Thursday.

The injured woman was Mrs. Claude H. Massie of 765 Davis St. She was a passenger in a car driven by her husband, Claude, 34. Police reported the Massie car struck one driven by Samuel B. Creasap, 81, of 242 W. Columbia St. Police said that Creasap pulled from a parking place in front of his home at 2:29 p.m. Thursday and into the Massie car which was passing at the time. The force of the impact pushed Creasap's car into a parked car owned by Charles W. Trafer of 242 W. Columbia St.

Mrs. Massie suffered back and side injuries and was taken to Marion General Hospital in a Boyd ambulance. She was reported in "fairly good" condition today.

The other person injured in an accident was Viola Mae Frazier, of 191 Wallace St. She was a passenger in a car driven by Robert L. Frazier, 26, of 275 Chestnut St. The Frazier car and one driven by Milford Roy Shearer, 63, of 361 Cherry St., collided at the corner of Leader and Chestnut Sts. at 4:15 p.m. Police reported Frazier slowed to make a left turn onto Chestnut St. and was struck by the Shearer car.

Mrs. Frazier was taken to Marion General Hospital with an injured neck. She was released after treatment.

At 7:20 a.m. Thursday, cars driven by Charles H. Dawson, 30, of near Delaware and Melvin E. Bollenger, 32, of 691 N. State St., collided on Quarry St.

Police reported the other accident caused total damage of less than $100.

Drake Named Highway Study Group Member

GALLION — Rep. Terry Drake of Crawford County was notified today by Roger Cloud, speaker of the House of Representatives, and chairman of the Ohio Legislative Service Commission, that Drake has been appointed a member of the highway study committee of the commission.

D. O. Taber is chairman of the committee. The study was requested by the 101st General Assembly in a resolution adopted in the House of Representatives. This resolution pointed out that by approval of a $500 million bond issue in 1953 and subsequent legislative action, a totally new concept in approach to highway projection, including the issuance of bonds, turnpike reciprocity, administrative features, federal program, and financing is required.

The new committee of the commission will make a survey of the state's truck-weight laws, highway financing and the loss covering acquisition of rights of way. This committee will make its recommendations to the 102nd General Assembly along with any legislation deemed necessary.

2 Ohio Boys Killed, 3 Girls Injured in Crash

CINCINNATI (AP)—Two boys were killed and three young girls were injured early today in southwestern Hamilton County where their car and a tractor-trailer collided, police reported.

The dead were identified as Michael A. Sherman, 16, of North Bend, Ohio, and William Ross, 18, who lived near Middletown.

The injured girls, all reported in fair condition at St. Francis Hospital, are:

Nancy Beyer, 15, of Cleves; Charlotte Haas, 17, and Sandra Koon, 15, both of Harrison.

ON WAY HOME. Mrs. Romola Abidin, who was declared innocent of murdering her husband, Warrant Officer Robert J., by an Army court martial in Japan, arrives at San Francisco, Calif. She is accompanied by her father, Louis M. Viviano (right) and her three sons, Randolph, 4, (left), Ronald, 6, (right) and Robert, 7. The family plans to return to Viviano's home at Bayside, N. Y.

Relatives File Suit To Contest Will of Deceased County Man

A suit contesting the will of the late Clare Smith, who left the bulk of his estate, appraised at over $70,000, to the American Humane Education Society of Boston, Mass., was filed Thursday in Common Pleas Court.

The suit was filed by Emerson McKelvey and Jack Sims of near Marion, Millard Sims of near Prospect and Luther Sims of near Mount Gilead.

Named defendants were the Society, Bert Coons of near Marion, who was named executor of Smith's will, and Paul McWhorter, Thomas Steen, and Charles Fetter, all of near Morral, Salt Rock Township trustees, and their clerk, Pearl Parker of Morral, all legatees of the estate, and 38 cousins.

The plaintiffs, also cousins of Smith, say that he died on Jan. 21, 1955, leaving themselves and the 38 other cousins as the closest surviving relatives.

On Feb. 21, 1955, Smith's will and a codicil were admitted to probate, with Bert Coons being named executor. By terms of the will, made out in 1919, Coons was to get $1,000 and the Salt Rock Township trustees, $1,000. Interest from the trustees' $1,000 is to be used for maintaining the Deal Cemetery in Salt Rock Township. The will then directed the remainder of the estate, after being sold, to go to the Society in Boston. The estate has been appraised at over $70,000.

Reserve

President Eisenhower last week authorized an Army quota of 90,000 such enlistments and the Marine Corps 5,500 during the 10 months ending next June 30.

7 1/2 Years in Reserve

The six months of active training must be followed up by 7 1/2 years more in the active reserve. Volunteers will be deferred from the draft throughout the full eight years if they take an active and satisfactory part in the reserve training. Otherwise they are subject to a two-year draft.

These short-term trainees will be paid $50 a month for the six months. High school students who volunteer may be deferred from the initial active duty training until they complete their high school courses or reach the age of 20, whichever is earlier.

Enlistments will be handled by the nearest organized reserve unit rather than regular recruiting centers, although recruiters will give information about the program.

War Fleet

which spurred Italian authorities to send down divers.

The war fleet was sent by Athens against Corinthian-held Syracuse, once Greece's greatest colony, in the days of Alcibiades.

The Siracusanians defended themselves well in their fortress-guarded bay and the Athenian commanders decided to withdraw. Because of superstition, however, they waited until after the eclipse of the moon on Aug. 27, 413 B. C.

By then it was too late. The Siracusanians trapped them by blocking the mouth of the harbor with the hulks of old ships. All but 15 of the Greek ships were sunk. The Athenian shore force of 6,000 men was decimated and its survivors were sold into slavery.

Many historians have called the defeat the beginning of the end of the power of Athens.

Dr. Lee

he is winding up 12 years of Army service, Lee told the Chronicle:

"This doesn't hurt me, it hurts my country."

"Of course I'll fight it. As a matter of principle. Besides, I was raised down there and I belong there."

He's a graduate of the University of Southern California and interned in Orange County. He and his wife expect their first child soon.

Lee won the Olympic diving championship in 1948 and 1952. He was serving in Korea last year when he was recalled to receive the Sullivan Memorial Award as the man who contributed most to American amateur sports in 1953.

The State Department subsequently sent him on a three month tour of Asia and the Middle East. On that tour, Lee wrote from Ceylon to relatives here:

"Last night, I had an argument with a rabid Communist who said the capitalistic world had subjugated the colored races long enough."

"Then I said if this is so why am I, a member of the colored race, sitting here as a world champion and a doctor of medicine?"

Train

seriously enough to require hospitalization, perhaps 50 persons were treated at the improvised hospital for minor injuries and shock.

The wreck occurred at 9:30 a.m. The diesel-powered train of 13 cars had left Kansas City at 11:25 last night and was due in Memphis, Tenn., 50 miles southeast of here, at 10 a.m.

The train was moving along a 20-foot embankment southeast of the Marked Tree depot when the accident occurred.

Ambulances and doctors were called from Memphis and from nearby Arkansas cities.

Boost in Tariff On Bicycles Is Ordered by Ike

FRASER, Colo. (AP)—President Eisenhower today ordered an immediate 50 per cent tariff hike on all imported bicycles to protect American producers from "serious injury."

In announcing the action, the President's vacation headquarters here indicated it might raise the wholesale cost of imported models in the United States by from $1 to $3 if foreign manufacturers add the duty increase to their selling price.

In ordering the duty hike, Eisenhower concurred with findings by the Tariff Commission that the American bicycle industry has "suffered serious injury or the threat of serious injury from increased imports resulting in part from tariff concessions."

Eisenhower approved an increase of from the present 7 1/2 per cent to 11 1/4 per cent in the duty on the value of the popular imported large wheel lightweight models. Those are bikes with a wheel diameter of more than 25 inches, weighing less than 35 pounds.

The Tariff Commission had recommended an increase to 22 1/4 per cent of the value on such models.

The President went along with the commission on its call for a hike from the present 15 per cent to 22 1/4 per cent of the value on all other imported bikes.

The White House said most bicycles come from Great Britain, West Germany, Austria, France, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg.

Floods

a summer camp at Godeffroy, N. Y., while Coast Guard rescue units airlifted 300 guests to Eddy Farm, outside Sparrowsburg.

Hundreds fled their homes in New Jersey. Hardest hit sector was in the western section where the Delaware was reported 28 feet above normal around Phillipsburg.

The Potomac overflowed and for a time threatened historic monuments along the Virginia shore.

Nearly 30 persons were injured, none seriously, when two diesels and four cars of a Chicago-to-Boston New York Central passenger train jumped the tracks at a washout near Russell, Mass., and plunged 60 feet down an embankment to the flood-swollen Westfield River.

3 Killed in Landslide
Three persons were killed in a landslide in Dolton, Vt. They were trapped under tons of earth as a 200-foot cliff, loosened by the rain, collapsed.

Flood waters in western Massachusetts and Connecticut isolated at least two communities. Many roads and bridges were washed out, threatening the safety of thousands.

Rain continued in the New England area but was expected to end before noon.

The Pennsylvania death toll was broken down into eight drownings, one victim a 13-month-old girl who tumbled into Towbend Creek outside her Great Bend home in Susquehanna County; four killed in three auto accidents on flooded highways and two killed by storm-broken electric wires.

The Virginian and Rhode Island fatalities were drownings.

In Massachusetts two men were killed by electric wires and the third killed in a highway accident.

The two-day rainstorm turned the New England area into a danger spot today. The most critical spot in Massachusetts was the Farmington River valley, which runs from the Berkshires into Connecticut. Many towns were isolated and partly inundated.

Rail Service Cut

Rail service in all the flooded areas was cut. Hundreds of highways and bridges everywhere were washed out.

Mayor James E. Cole declared a state of emergency in Port Jervis, N. Y., a city of 10,000 population.

Residents of the lower part of the city fronting the Delaware River were moved to higher ground. Churches were opened to house them.

Across the Delaware, many residents of the lower section of Matamoras, Pa., were evacuated and took shelter in the Heater Hills back of the community.

Streets were flooded and the Erie Railroad yards were flooded in Port Jervis.

Firemen Answer Call

Draft Ike Move

By George Sokolsky

It is not easy to understand all the activity to "Draft Ike" for the Republican nomination for President in 1956. If Eisenhower wants the job, the Republicans will nominate him. In fact, they have no other candidate on hand, except Richard Nixon, the vice president, or William Knowland, the senator, and both would prefer to be remembered in 1960 rather than in 1956. Ike does not need to be drafted. The convention will be his private property and will do his bidding.

Tom Stephens, the Dewey henchman, and for a while appointment secretary to President Eisenhower, is busy himself with the "Draft Ike" effort. It is expected that John Roosevelt, Republican son of the late New Deal President, Frank D. Roosevelt, will head a citizens' committee.

ALL THIS ACTIVITY seems useless — of the order of presenting Caesar with a crown three times, when truly the old boy wanted it from the start.

It is normal for an American President to expect to be nominated for a second term.

It is abnormal for an American President to decline a second term. Coolidge did it by choosing not to run — but the trouble there was that the rest of the country did not understand the particular

New England Yankee use of the term "choose." It meant that that was his choice but was no indication as to how others should choose.

I have to say New England Yankee because there are lots of people these days who are not Yankees and who do not quite get the shades of meaning which are so characteristic of the people here in western Massachusetts and Vermont who use few words and no gestures but are always understood among themselves.

COOLIDGE WOULD have run for a second term had he been nominated, or so I have been told by those whose propinquity to him cannot be gainsaid.

As a matter of fact, if Eisenhower will run for a second term, the Republicans could dispense with their convention in San Francisco, where the hotel space is likely to present a problem. They could nominate him unanimously by mail, the proxies to be addressed to Thomas E. Dewey, who controls the machinery of the Republican party, although he likes to give the impression that he has retired from politics and is hidden away in the gullies of Wall Street.

Why go to the enormous expense of dragging thousands of people across the continent in August when the cat is already in the bag?

ALL THE PRESS AGENT stories handed out to give the impression that Ike may be too old at 70 are designed only to have thousands of telegrams and letters come to the White House, saying, "No! No! 70 is not too old, or even 80. Let's have Ike. We like Ike."

Age depends upon blood pressure, pulse pressure, pulse rates, blood sugar, etc., etc. It is possible to determine the realistic age of a man's physique, which may be 50 at 70. Of course, when the report is faked as it was with Franklin D. Roosevelt, there is no telling what a man's age is except by his birth certificate.

Gov. "Soapy" Williams' vulgarity in discussing this question is only possible in one who was badly bred and therefore should not be a candidate for the presidency or even the vice presidency because we should have decent manners in high places.

WHEN I READ what the soapy governor said, I thought that this fellow sure hopes that Ike is old with one foot in the grave, which is a very nasty thought on his part.

Even Democrats ought to feel that Ike would make graceful ex-President, living on his ancestral estate at Gettysburg and delivering addresses before universities and learned societies. Even a Democrat can wish him a long and happy life and I am sure that most of them do.

Forsooth, most of them would want him to remain President until 1960, 1956 not being the best of years for an opposition candidate, surely not if peace and prosperity lasts.

So why a "Draft Ike" movement? Why does Tom Stephens fuss so? Why does John Roosevelt who has been most un-Roosevelian up to now, want to get into the act? It would seem to be a waste of money.

Commie Stooges

In the lush safety of Pan-American's swift airliners, U.S. criss-crossed Asia to get to the cities from which you move by jeep and camel — cart and sampan up the Oriental roads and rivers to talk to the men who are on the frontiers of the Communist world.

THESE political frontiersmen — whether in the Kyber Pass area, near Japan's Mount Fuji or Singapore's rubber plantations — report to let up in the cold war.

They send word they'd be willing to take Comrades Bulgarian and Mao Tse-tung on a tour of the areas where Russian and Chinese Communists still war on us.

The Communist agents, for example, right now are planning to revoke bloody riots again throughout Southeast Asia and especially in Singapore and Saigon.

THE SOVIET underground controls many powerful Asiatic unions. And we have a prediction from Feng Hai-Chiao, secretary of the Hong Kong and Kowloon Trades Union Council. Feng is well informed. He believes that the Communists soon will uncoil "labor" riots across Southeast Asia, just as they've caused recent strikes on a broad front from Tokyo to Calcutta.

I report all this as a warning. I hope it is not ignored. We are witnessing a new world-Communist tactic. Guerrilla warfare and obvious Communist violence have been soft-pedaled by decrees from Moscow. In their place has come an intensified effort to seize control of all organized Asiatic labor.

If this latest "non-violent" tactic succeeds we will lose Asia just as if Red troops occupied all of it. Then war will be inevitable!

TO SEIZE ASIATIC labor and turn hundreds of millions of oriental workers against us, the strategists in Peking have developed a new policy. They plan, unless this kind of publicity kills the move, to launch a completely new Asiatic Federation of Labor which ostensibly will have nothing to do with the Communist controlled World Federation of Trade Unions. The Chinese Communists will say that it is time that all Asiatic labor joined in one big outfit, free of political control.

Once this is launched, it will be easy for the Communists, with their tremendous funds and manpower, to organize a terrific labor machine which can, on a minute's signal, slash railroads, paralyze waterfronts, immobilize ships, silence telephone and cable communications — on all of which independent governments here depend for existence.

You just have to get up in one of those big stratosphere and fly over the trackless mountain jungles of Burma, Vietnam, Laos, and the other roadless nations to see what this could really mean.

IF THE RUSSIAN and Chinese Communists are sincere they will abandon this plan to use the Asiatic working man to sabotage us and bring on Communist revolution through their unions.

If the Russian and Chinese Communists are sincere, they will withdraw their agents from Singapore, their spies from Manila, their terrorists — many of whom are being used in this new labor drive — from the black holes of Calcutta.

They will dismiss the 8,000 to 10,000 full time workers the Communist party has in India. They will stop pouring hundreds of thousands of dollars into the Communist party of India, for example, which has brought up a score of choice pieces of real estate in New Delhi. There the party has over 300 full time agents and workers alone. This operation in the Indian capital requires a minimum of $100,000 a year in payrolls alone.

THIS MONEY COMES from Moscow and Peking. Nehru knows it but is silent.

The same story is true in every other Asiatic capital.

The Russians pick up the tab for this infiltration work in India — and the Chinese Communists pay the bill for subversion farther east. The Peking government, for example, has a huge embassy in Rangoon, capital of neutralist Burma, whose Premier U Nu visited the U.S. recently.

This embassy is the brain center of the Communist network throughout Southeast Asia. It has a labor — action division, amply supplied with money from Peking. And it is going full blast against us and our allies in this part of the world.

If the Communist leaders mean what they say, it would be simple to dismantle all this and divert to more constructive use the millions of dollars they're spending on espionage, sabotage, incitement and propaganda. The money could sure help feed the millions in the mud hovels of the Asiatic world.

Let the Communists match their words with action.

Margaret

(For Hal Boyle)

WASHINGTON — "Well," said Mrs. Murgatroyd, over the morning coffee, "we should know Sunday."

Her husband allowed himself a critical analysis of the White Sox box score before inquiring who should know what Sunday.

"About Margaret," said his wife. "Margaret Fleming? Oh, no, I doubt if she'll have that baby for another week or 10 days. I was talking to Pete on the train yesterday."

"I mean Princess Margaret, you eat," Mrs. Murgatroyd said, "and you knew perfectly well what I meant. Sunday's the day. Her 25th birthday."

"That's nice," Mr. Murgatroyd said. "Should we send a present?" "Honestly," said Mrs. Murgatroyd, "men. Do you mean to tell me you don't know what's going to happen Sunday? Don't you read anything in the paper except the baseball news?"

"I READ THE obituaries," Mr. Murgatroyd said, "and the funnies. If anything, the obituaries are a little more cheerful than the funnies these days. Remember 'way back when funnies used to be funny?" "You are trying," said Mrs. Murgatroyd, who could see through him as if he were plate glass, "to change the subject. Princess Margaret wants to marry this Capt. Townsend. Her family, or Parliament, or somebody won't let her. But once she's 25 she can do as she pleases."

"Nobody," Mr. Murgatroyd said, "can ever do as he pleases. But let's not go into that now. Why won't the powers that be let Margaret marry her captain? Do they think he can't support her on a captain's pay?"

"It's the matter of the divorce," said Mrs. Murgatroyd patiently. "He's divorced, and the Church of England frowns on divorce. If you ask me, the whole thing is ridiculous."

Mr. Murgatroyd hadn't asked her, as a matter of fact, but he considered her judgment gravely.

"I'll bet it's pretty serious to Margaret and Peter," he said at last.

"Of course it is!" Mrs. Murgatroyd was in danger of violating her pledge never to lose her temper at breakfast. "I mean it's ridiculous that the poor girl shouldn't be allowed to marry the man of her choice!"

"YOU SEEM," Mr. Murgatroyd observed, "to have changed your views about divorce. I remember when the Hawkinses split up you were fit to be —"

"That was entirely different," said Mrs. Murgatroyd. "Capt. Townsend was divorced years ago."

"If I understand you correctly," Mr. Murgatroyd said, "you are saying that a divorce is a perfectly dreadful thing if it happens today but is perfectly all right if it happened 10 years ago. How do you figure that?"

"There is no use discussing the matter further," said Mrs. Murgatroyd, with dignity. The silence that followed could have been sculpted with a chisel.

Mr. Murgatroyd broke it. "Of course," he said conciliantly, "Capt. Townsend was the innocent party in the divorce. I mean, no misconduct was charged to him."

"Exactly what I was —" Mrs. Murgatroyd paused and her eyes narrowed ominously. "So, you never heard of this romance, didn't you? It was all a surprise to you, was it? Well, it seems to me you just gave yourself away, Mr. Doubledome! You've been following it as carefully as anybody else!"

By Ed Creagh

"I may have seen some passing reference to it in the press," said Mr. Murgatroyd airily. "Sunday's the day, eh? You think they'll announce their engagement?"

"I'll tell you what we'll do," Mrs. Murgatroyd was radiant, suddenly, and feeling rather like a bride-to-be herself. "We'll get up early Sunday and listen to the news. It's five hours later over there. Or is it five hours earlier? Oh, dear, I do hope everything works out all right for everybody!"

Church Suppers, Sales

Criticized by Adventist

BALTIMORE, (AP) — Fund-raising gimmicks of many churches — rummage sales, bingo, even the traditional chicken suppers — were given a lambasting at a church meeting here today.

Darrell K. Smith told the Chesapeake conference of Seventh-Day Adventists, "nowhere in Holy Scriptures do we find a command or entreaty for the conduct of rummage sales, chicken suppers, white elephant sales, bingo or lottery games to keep up the finances of the Christian church."

Smith, pastor of the Adventist church of Laurel, Md., said, "God has a plan in tithes and free-will offerings that if followed would fully meet all the costs of evangelism, church and ministerial expenses."

"The great need today is for church members to get their thinking straight in regard to the financing of the church."

Solve Sewer Problems, O'Neill Advises Counties

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—State Attorney Gen. C. William O'Neill yesterday urged Ohio's county commissioners to act promptly to meet growing needs for such services as water and sanitary facilities. O'Neill, speaking at the midyear conference of the County Commissioners Assn. of Ohio, said metropolitan populations that are spilling over into rural areas offer the county commissioner his greatest challenge.

"If you do not take the lead in solving problems nearest to you, some other agency is going to step in," he said.

Artist Is Ready To Face Death

Rivera Makes Will and Reveals New Marriage

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Preparing for a trip to Russia to undergo serious cancer surgery, painter Diego Rivera has drawn up a new will and taken a new bride.

The 69-year-old Mexican artist announced last week he is suffering from cancer, saying "I am not dying yet, but I may be in two or three weeks."

Rivera told a news conference Thursday he had married Emma Hurtado, 39-year-old dancer and model, but declined to say where or when the marriage took place. Earlier this week she denied they had been married.

Under the terms of his will, Rivera's extensive art collection and a house he built as a museum for it will go to the Mexican government on his death. The collection includes about 1,000 paintings and drawings and one of the finest groups of pre-Spanish Indian sculptures in the world.

Rivera also told newsmen he wanted his ashes mixed with those of his first wife, painter Frida Kahlo. She died last year of cancer.

Rivera was readmitted to membership in the Communist party 11 months ago after an in-and-out party career. He said he would leave for Russia next week. The nature of his cancer has not been disclosed.

Bar Association Groups Will Meet in Columbus

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio State Bar Assn. has scheduled meetings in Columbus Sept. 9-10 for its 30 standing committees, including a new group formed to consider reforms in criminal law.

Association President Fred A. Smith of Toledo said yesterday the new 30-member group to study criminal law reforms will include an equal number of prosecutors and defense attorneys.

"We are aware of the need for reform in legislation concerning criminals and persons accused of crime, and hope to be able to contribute to the improvement of Ohio's criminal laws," he said.

Atty. O.H. Corvinton of Akron will head the new group.

Mother Takes Stand

GALLIPOLIS, Ohio (AP)—The mother of a 17-year-old Gallipolis airman, whose charges led to the trial of Jackson County Sheriff David L. Trago, yesterday described how the sheriff led her son astray. Trago is accused of contributing to the delinquency of Airman David L. Hatfield, whose mother, Mrs. Viola Hatfield, testified as the first defense witness yesterday. In opening remarks, the defense said it would prove Trago was at work in Jackson when the alleged offense took place. The trial continues today.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state highway patrol said power was cut in several villages in the area around nearby Lockbourne Air Force last night when a B-47 Lockbourne, Ashville, Groveport, bomber coming in for a landing Canal Winchester, Reynoldsburg struck high tension lines. No one and up to near Circleville, the plane was injured and the plane landed safely. The power lines came down just south of the base on the Circleville-Lockbourne Rd. in Pickaway County, blocking the highway, and darkening the communities of Force last night when a B-47 Lockbourne, Ashville, Groveport, bomber coming in for a landing Canal Winchester, Reynoldsburg struck high tension lines. H-Bomb Ingredient May Be Valuable 'Tracer' Chemical GENEVA (AP)—Tritium, an ingredient of the hydrogen bomb, may prove a valuable help to commercial laundries in cleaning greasy clothes.

W. G. Brown of the U. S. Atomic Energy Commission's Argonne National Laboratory and three colleagues told the atoms-for-peace conference today that this radioactive form of hydrogen may also become widely used in dairy food processing, petroleum and other industries.

Tritium is the heavyweight form of hydrogen. AEC scientists explained that its potential use in industry would be as a radioactive tracer.

Thus in laundries, tritium could be put into a washing solution for greasy clothes and it would become distributed among the hydrogen atoms in grease. Later the clothes could be inspected with a Geiger counter to see whether all the grease has been removed.

They said tritium might have wide application industrially for measuring retention of dyes by fabrics, study of combustion processes in the petroleum industry, petroleum exploration and investigations of atmospheric pollution.

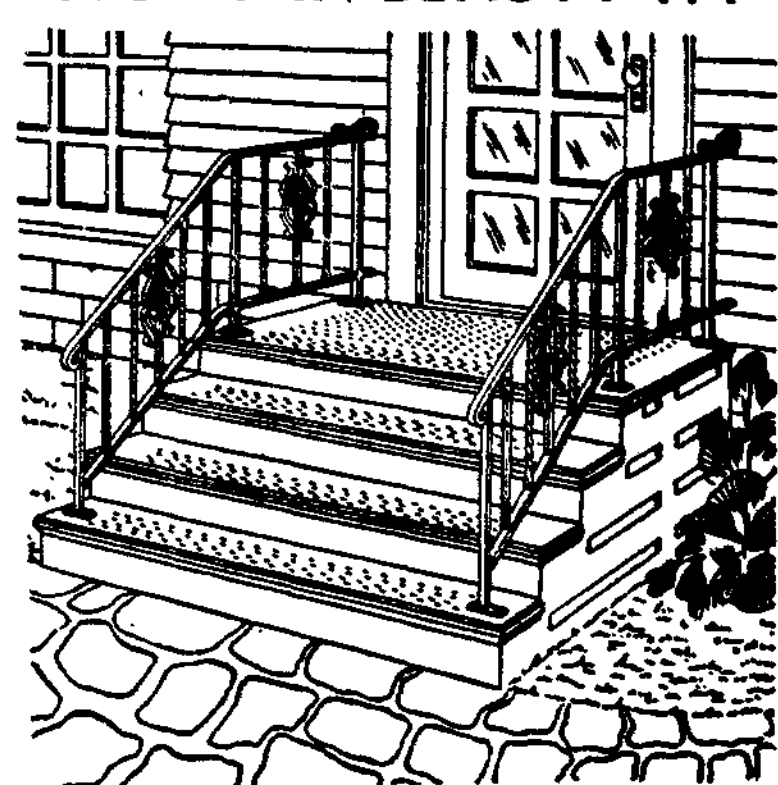

Queen of Clay Chosen

UHRICHVILLE, Ohio (AP)—This Tuscarawas community, which calls itself the clay capital of the world, last night saw Deanna Schreiner, 17-year-old high school senior from Gnadenhutten, chosen Miss Clay of 1955. The selection came at the height of national clay week festivities here. Deanna, a 5-foot, 4-inch, 124-pound, hazel-eyed blonde, is the daughter of an appliance dealer. She is active in religious work and lists her hobbies as swimming and dancing.

Herb Score Fans 13 To Turn Back Detroit in Finale

Garcia Will Oppose Raschi In Opener Against Athletics

CLEVELAND (AP)—It looks like rookie southpaw Herb Score will wind up in the Cleveland Indians' big three this year.

He looked like the best of that battered crew yesterday as he beat the Detroit Tigers 5-3, fanning 13 and walking only three.

It ran the 22-year-old lefthander's record to 13-9, and he's crowding Mike Garcia out of the big three. Early Wynn with 14-8 and Bob Lemon with 13-8 are still on top.

Manager Al Lopez, who earlier had announced Garcia would be his pitcher, switched to Score to salvage one game out of the three-game Detroit series. "Score's been a better pitcher lately," explained Lopez.

Score hasn't lost a game since July 26. He's started five times since then, won four, and gave way to Ray Narleski who got the victory in the other game.

Facing an all-right-handed Detroit starting lineup, Score turned in one of his best performances. He fanned Jack Phillips and pitcher Frank Lary three times and Pete Bertola twice.

Detroit got eight hits, scoring a single run in the third on a single, an error and a forceout, and two runs in the ninth on two walks, a double and a forceout.

Narleski was sent in to pitch to Harvey Kuenn, who had singled twice off Score, and got him on an infield pop for the final out.

The Indians scored one in the first on singles by Bob Avila and Gene Woodling and a sacrifice fly by Vic Wertz. Two Detroit errors, singles by Larry Doby, Hal Naragon and Score, and a sacrifice fly by Ferris Fain scored four more in the eighth.

Garcia, now 8-11, pitches tonight against the Kansas City Athletics, who knocked him out of the box with nine hits in two innings in his latest start. The A's pitcher in the first of the three games will be Vic Raschi (4-4).

The win yesterday enabled the Tribe to pick up a half game on the league-leading New York Yankees, who were idle. The Indians are now one game off the pace and trail the second-place Chicago White Sox by only three percentage points.

The 13 strikeouts by Score boosted his season total to 192. He has pitched 180 innings. Bob Turley, New York Yankee fireballer, whiffed 185 in 147 innings last year to lead the league. He has posted 177 this year.

Al Rosen was out of the starting lineup for yesterday's game but will return tonight. A neck and shoulder injury limited his play for the finale. In his absence, Al Smith moved to third base.

Registration Heavy For Women's Swim Courses at YMCA

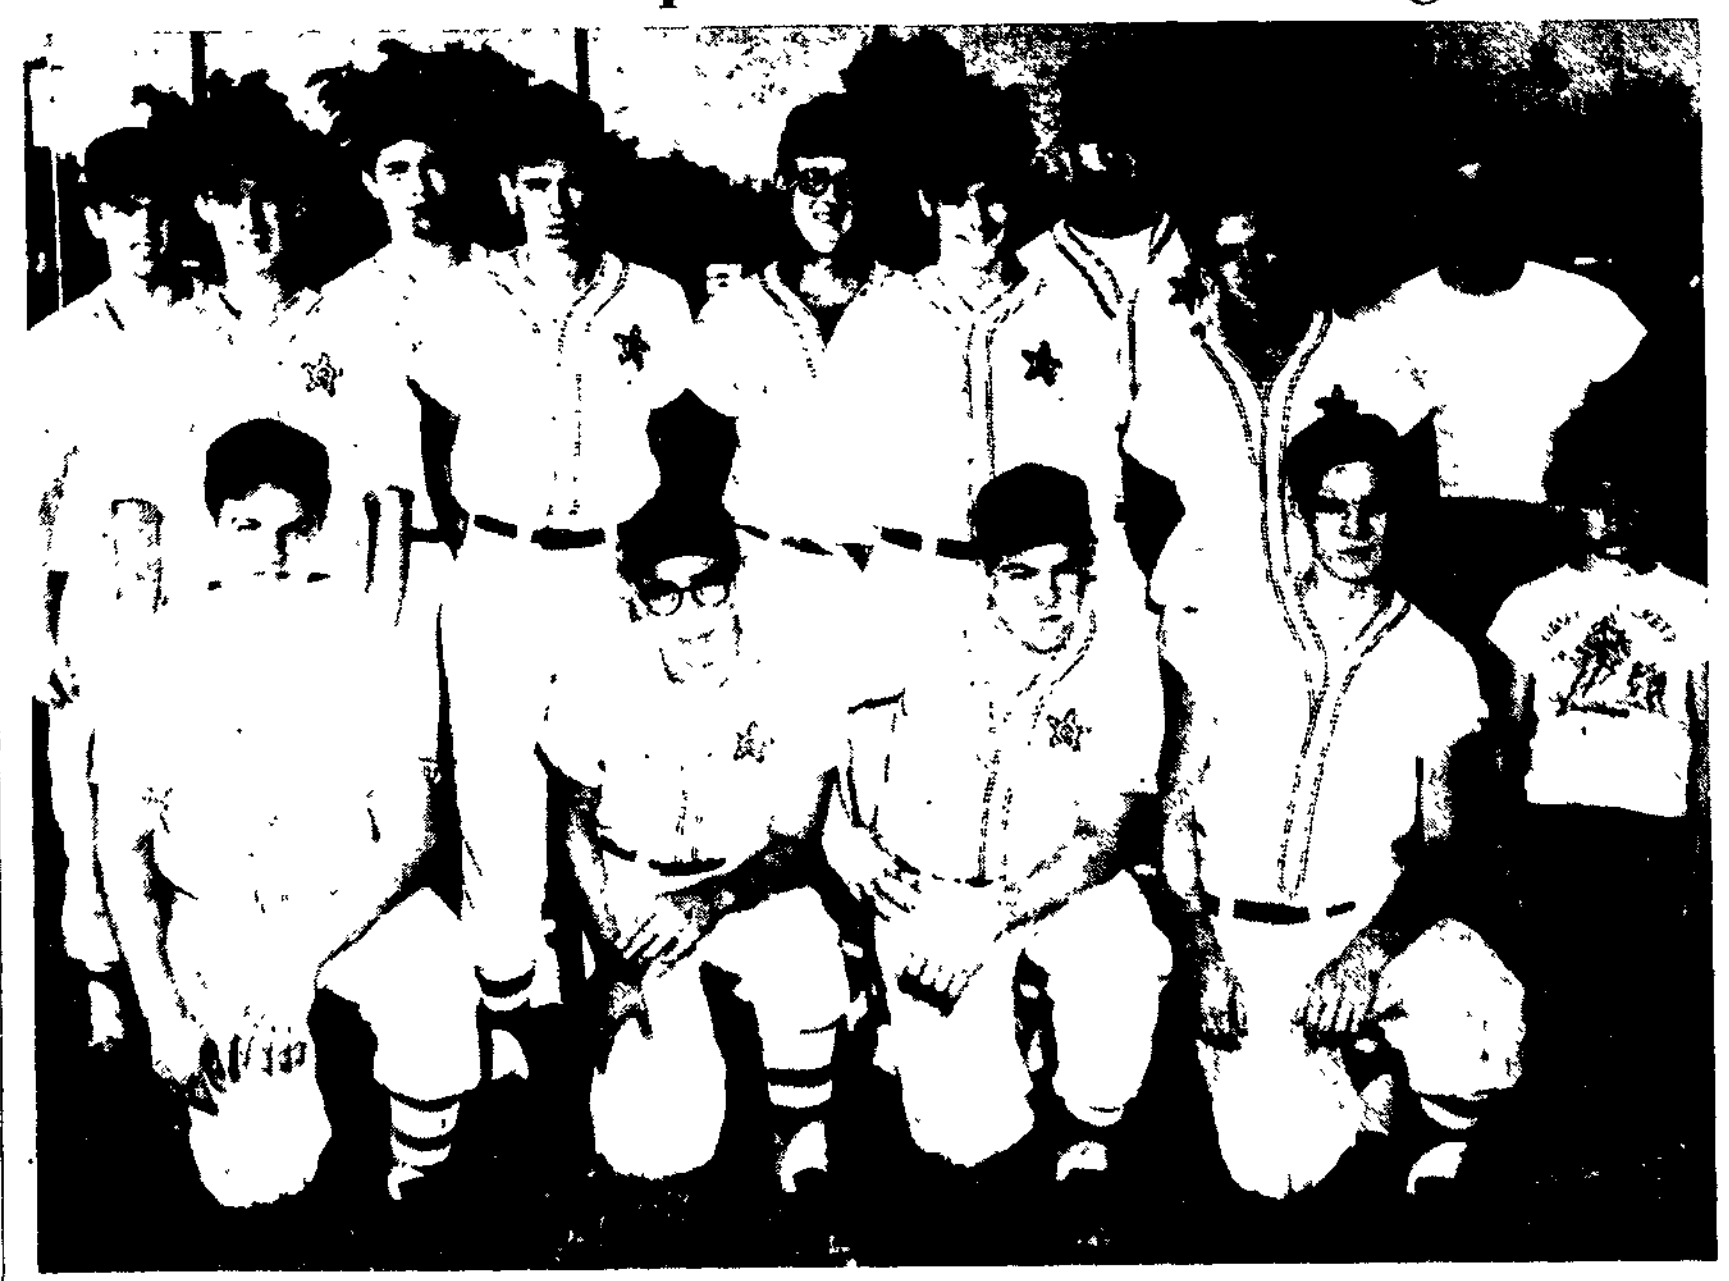

Marion women have been registering for YMCA swimming classes at a record-breaking pace during the last few weeks, a spokesman for the physical department announced today.

"The women's beginners' swim classes have been filled to overflowing for the first six weeks swimming course beginning in the middle of September," the spokesman said. Registrations will still be accepted, he said, but the names will be placed on a waiting list.

The women's intermediate class still has a few openings and a few vacancies also remain in the Women's Synchronized Swim Club. Women interested in any of these vacancies may register at the "Y" desk or by calling the YMCA at 2-4144.

Several six-week courses will be offered during the fall, winter and spring months.

Hilliards Track Files Charges, Claims Fraud

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—The Columbus Trotting Assn. of Hilliards, Ohio, has filed a suit in federal court here charging two of its stockholders with converting $68,000 of track money to personal use.

The two named, Russel G. Talbot, an investment broker with the Talbot Co., and Harold B. Dennison, who both share a Buffalo office, denied the charges.

The Talbot Co. also was named as a defendant.

The suit said both men, together with other persons, promoted the association before its incorporation in 1949. Dennison was described as an association partner and Talbot as a director.

The complaint alleged that Dennison, Talbot and others represented to the corporation the assets of the track partnership were valued at $93,000, when its actual value was "less than $34,789.74."

Yanks Retain Slim Margin As Chisox, Kansas City Split

By The Associated Press

The New York Yankees, rained out at Boston Thursday, came through a nerve-rattling experience still on top of the American League by a single game margin.

The idle Yanks lost their lead for about three hours and regained it without lifting a finger, a bat or a ball.

Chicago choked up, dropping the second game of a doubleheader with sixth-place Kansas City 5-3 after slipping ahead of the Yanks with a 6-2 victory in the first game.

Cleveland, meanwhile, climbed back to within a game of first place, and within three percentage points of the White Sox, by ending its slump with a 5-3 decision over Detroit.

The White Sox got two unearned runs for an early lead in the nightcap, but still couldn't get home safe. Vic Power smashed a two-run homer in the sixth off loser Harry Byrd to tie it. And after Sherm Lollar homered the Sox back into the lead, 3-2, in the bottom half of the frame, Byrd collapsed in the seventh.

A's Rally
Bill Renna doubled. Joe DeMaestri tripled and Wilbur Shantz singled for two runs and the A's had it. Arnie Portocarrero checked the Sox on six hits, but walked four—leaving 10 runners stranded.

Virgil Trucks won the opener, his 12th, although forced out when hit by a line drive in the sixth. The Sox picked it up as the winning run scored on three singles in the fifth and Minnie Minoso smacked a two-run double in the seventh.

Cleveland waltzed in as two Tiger errors led the way to a five-run eighth. That broke up a 1-1 duel between rookie Frank Lary (J.) 3-2, Chicago Marquette's beating North Charleston (S. C.) 5-2, and Washington (Pa.) edging Greensboro (N. C.) 8-7.

Leaders Idled
In the National League, Brooklyn broke out of its "slump" to score three runs on five hits while pasting Jim Hearn in the first inning and rumbled on to an 8-4 decision over the New York Giants. Jim Bessent won in relief as the Giants ousted Karl Spooner with two in the third and two in the fourth.

Cincinnati moved back into fifth place, displacing Chicago with a 2-1 victory over the Cubs. Four singles after two were out in the sixth scored the Redleg runs off loser Paul Minner. Art Fowler gave six hits for the triumph.

The Milwaukee Braves defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 5-3 in the only night game. Warren Spahn recorded his second victory in four nights. Bill Bruton hit a home run with one male on and Chuck Tanner hit one with the bases empty for the winners. Larry Jackson was the loser.

Ohio Entry Wins

WASHINGTON, Pa. (AP)—Tight pitching in all but one game yesterday marked the opening round of the Pony League World Series. All eight teams in the series, composed of players in the 13-14 age bracket, saw action with San Bernardino (Calif.) beating San Antonio (Texas) 4-1, Youngstown (Ohio) edging New Brunswick, N. J. 3-2, Chicago Marquette's beating North Charleston (S. C.) 5-2, and Washington (Pa.) edging Greensboro (N. C.) 8-7.

Reds Gain Fifth, Down Bruins 2-1

CINCINNATI (AP)—A three-game series between Cincinnati and Chicago was a success as far as the Redlegs were concerned because it wound up with them in fifth place in the National League by virtue of yesterday's 2-1 victory.

But as far as the series concerned fans who wanted to see a home run duel between Chicago's Ernie Banks and Cincinnati's Ted Kluszewski, it was a bust.

Kluszewski currently is the major league home run leader with 41 and Banks is second with 39 and Kluszewski appeared to be on a rampage with four homers in two games in St. Louis.

But neither Kluszewski nor Banks even came close to providing home run fireworks in the three-game series. Banks wound up with four singles in 11 times at bat. Kluszewski was even more futile with only one single for 12 times at bat in the three contests.

Smoky Burgess and Hank Sauer stole all their home run thunder.

Burgess got one for Cincinnati in each of the first two games and the veteran Sauer got two for Chicago in the second game.

Yesterday's contest was strictly a pitchers' battle between Art Fowler of the Reds and Paul inner and Bill Tremel of the Cubs. The victory provided a 9-7 record for Fowler, who has been Cincinnati's most effective pitcher in recent weeks.

Back on June 20, Fowler's record stood at 2-4 and it looked as if his mark of 12-10 last year was just a flash in the pan. But he has won seven and lost three since then and now has a wide open chance to beat last year's performance. That's what he wants to do, too, because he remarked earlier in the season he'd be "ashamed to go home and face the folks" if he didn't do better than in 1954—his first year in the majors.

Yesterday, Fowler held the Bruins to three harmless singles until he began to tire in the eighth. He had a 2-0 lead at that point but yielded a run in the frame on a single by Eddie Miksis, a walk to Walker Cooper and Dee Fondy's single. The Cubs also had two men on in the ninth but Fowler stopped that threat by forcing Sauer and Miksis to fly out for the final two outs.

The Reds got all of their runs in the sixth as Gus Bell, Charlie Harmon, Rocky Bridges and Roy McMillan singled in succession after two were out.

The Rhinelanders will open a three-game series with the St. Louis Cardinals tonight. Manager Birdie Tebbetts, hoping to throttle St. Louis' left handed hitting power, had southpaw Joe Nuxhall ready to pitch. He was expected to be opposed by Tom Poholsky.

Walker To Make Final Dallas Start
 DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—Some 50,000 fans will turn out tonight to see Doak Walker in his football swan song and also to watch a couple of good professional teams rip up the sod of the Cotton Bowl.

Walker, in his final appearance before the home folks in the stadium where he has drawn more than 1,000,000 in 19 appearances, will spearhead the Detroit Lions against the Philadelphia Eagles in what should be a touchdown flood.

Walker, All-America three times, has announced that this is his final season in football. That means his appearance in tonight's pro exhibition will be the last in the South-west.

Yesterday's Stars
 Pitching—Arnie Portocarrero, Athletics, checked White Sox on six hits and one earned run in 5-3 second-game victory after A's lost opener 6-2.
 Batting—Bill Bruton, Braves, hit a home run, double and single and batted in two in 6-5 victory over St. Louis Cardinals.

Arnold Palmer Takes Lead in Canadian Open

TORONTO (AP)—Arnold Palmer is heading towards an all-time low score in the Canadian Open Tournament.

Palmer, 1954, U.S. amateur champion, headed 102 golfers into the second half of the 72-hole tournament today with a 13-under-par 131 built on rounds of 64 and 67. At the rate he's going the 268 mark set by South Africa's Bobby Locke in 1947 is well within his reach.

Palmer's rounds gave him into a two-stroke lead over Jackie Burke Jr. of Kiamasha Lake, N.Y., who put together a 67 and a 66 for a 133.

Charlie Sifford, the first-day leader with a record-equaling 63, blew sky high to a 74 Thursday.

Putter Goes Sour, Ohio Golfer Leaves

TORONTO (AP)—Dow Finsterwald of Bedford Heights, Ohio, has dropped out of the Canadian Open Golf championship.

He picked up his ball on the 14th green yesterday, tossed it to his caddie, and said, "let's go," then walked off.

Finsterwald was out on 35 and had three-putted the 12th. At the 14th he missed his second putt, then batted the ball back and forth across the cup. That's when he left. Finsterwald shot a 71 in first round play.

Leo Biagetti, Sandusky, Ohio, shot a 70-79—149 in the opening two rounds.

Cincinnati Legion Wins

ST. JOSEPH, Mich. (AP)—Cincinnati won the Region Seven American Legion baseball tournament Thursday night, upsetting Michigan City, Ind., 4-0 and 16-2, in a doubleheader.

The victory qualified Cincinnati to meet Oshkosh, Wis., in the sectional tournament to be held at Bismarck, N.D. starting Sunday.

Montreal Ace Hurls No-Hitter Over Columbus

By The Associated Press

After nearly two seasons with only one no-hitter, the International League has erupted with two in less than a week.

Ken Lehman, Montreal's ace, hurled a perfect game, retiring 21 in a row, in the seven-inning first game of a doubleheader at Columbus last night. The loser was Dick Hoover, who four days ago hurled a one-walk no-hitter against Richmond.

Earlier in the year, April 29, Duke Markell of Rochester had a nine-inning masterpiece, but then you have to go back to September 9, 1953 when Al Lary of Buffalo last turned the trick in a seven-inning game.

Lehman's perfect game meant a split for the Royals who lost the second game 6-5 after the lefty's 3-0 triumph.

The Royals lost no ground in the hot race, however, as Toronto split also, leaving the teams in a virtual tie for first with the Leafs ahead by .002.

Toronto racked up Richmond behind Jim Konstanty, 7-1, before bowing 8-5. Buffalo and Syracuse split their twinbill, each game decided by a single run. The Bisons won the second game 3-2 in regulation time after dropping the overtime opener, 3-1.

In a single contest, Havana downed Rochester, 7-3, to move within 2 1/2 games of the leaders.

Face Rebuilding Jobs

Prexies and Irish To Launch Pre-Season Drills Tomorrow

Football officially appears here Saturday morning when candidates for the Harding and St. Mary High School varsity squads begin pre-school workouts under the eyes of Coaches Gordon Larson and Ray Robbins.

Rebuilding projects face both mentors. Graduation last June stripped the squads of all but one offensive backfield starter and practically the entire line.

AT HARDING, Tex Burns, who took over at fullback when Gary (Chug) Ballinger was injured in the season opener last year, is the lone regular backfield returnee.

Pete Schnauer, a guard, Gary Huber, center and linebacker, and Ted Firtenberger, an end, are the lone regulars from last year's rugged forward wall.

Other lettermen are Dave Townsend, a tackle; Larry Coy, a guard;

Tom Hazen, a defensive halfback; and Harding punter last season Jed Middleton, defensive halfback who was the only sophomore to letter last year; and Bob Shaffer, a halfback.

Nineteen senior lettermen who led the Prexies to a 6-2-1 mark in 1954 are missing. Gone are Ends Gene Armstrong, Bob Stauffer, Fred Hazen and Bob Prater; Tackles Frank Nolti, Frank D'Ermo, Larry Harper and Jim Peacock; Guards Hank Rinnert, Abner Thomas and Larry Sager; Centers Bob Caldwell and Jim Snyder; and Backs Joe Snouffer, Don Schweinfurth, Joe Albinack, Chet King, Keith Augenstein, and Ballinger.

St. Mary lost nine lettermen. Bob McMahan, fullback, is the only returning backfield regular. Quarterback Roger Michell, and Halfbacks John Messenger and Jerry Cornely received their high school diplomas last June. However, Don Shearer, who was an alternate at the halfback post last season, is back.

THE IRISH, undefeated Mid Ohio Conference champs last season, return four regular defensive linemen but lost five starters in the offensive line.

Dick King, defensive tackle and offensive center; Butch Simpson, defensive tackle; Jon Smith, defensive guard; and Dick Mounts, defensive end and offensive tackle, were all regulars for St. Mary's rough defensive last year.

Frank Grace, Carmen Morbitt and Bill Lavender, all linemen, and Bob Campton and John Spangler, backs, are other lettermen returning.

Graduation took Thome, a back, and John Kelly, Jerry Ballenger, Gary Howman, Dave Kraft and Richard Michell, first-string linemen, from Robbins.

Eight Races Set To Open Card At County Fair

Four trot and pace races will open the 1955 harness horse racing program at the Marion County Fair Saturday night.

The first of four nightly sessions, racing is to get under way at 8 p.m. on the Fairgrounds track.

On tomorrow night's opening program is a two-year old pace, two-year old trot, 20 pace and 20 trot. Drivers in each race, raced over a distance of one mile in two dashes, will be vying for $500 in purse money and a trophy offered by local concerns.

Sessions Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will wind up the fair speed program. There is pari mutuel betting.

LaRue Team To Meet

The first call for grid candidates at LaRue High School was made today by Warren Lowther, LaRue superintendent. All boys interested in grid action were asked to meet at the high school Monday at 4 p.m. Uniforms will be issued and the candidates will be introduced to the new coach, Mike Pekach.

NEW YORK (AP) — President Walter O'Malley of the Brooklyn Dodgers and Mayor Robert Wagner went into a high-level conference today and on the results could hinge the future fate of the Brooks.

The Dodgers are going to play seven home games in Jersey City next season and that announcement whipped city officials into action. They know O'Malley means business in his efforts to have a new field with adequate parking facilities built for the Dodgers.

Before entering the mayor's chambers, O'Malley revealed that Ebbets Field would be sold at the end of the 1957 season.

"That means," he said, "we'll play 77 home games somewhere in 1958. I hope we'll play them in Brooklyn if things move fast enough."

O'Malley vetoed the idea that the city float a municipal bond issue to build a new stadium as has been done in Cleveland, Baltimore and Kansas City.

"That's out," he said emphatically. "I wouldn't want to have baseball tied up with politics in any way. All I ask of the city fathers is their help in condemning city property."

O'Malley has the site of the proposed new park all picked out. It is in downtown Brooklyn on the site of the present Long Island Railroad station. The Brooklyn official family thinks it can be done. Others aren't so sure.

One of the city's top legal authorities said: "The city cannot condemn property for the Dodgers. The courts have decided time and again that professional baseball is not in the public interest."

This is a requirement of condemnation proceedings are to be instituted.

Meanwhile, both Jersey City, across the Hudson River, and the neighboring borough of Queens, invited the Brooks to resettle.

O'Malley said the Brooks have six million dollars set aside to start the park. All they need is a place to build it.

GE Jet Factory's Workers To Vote On New Contract

CINCINNATI (AP)—The 4,200 CIO United Automobile Workers at General Electric's jet engine plant will vote Aug. 28 on ratification of a new five-year contract calling for graduated wage increases and other benefits.

GE management announced last night that negotiators had reached a basis agreement on the new contract. Precise wording of the contract will be reached at further meetings next week.

In addition to the wage increase, the contract calls for expanded life and health insurance, more liberal retirement income and a new type of medical insurance.

On wages, the contract calls for an annual increase of three per cent for the years 1955, 1956 and 1957 with a minimum of four cents an hour; a 3.48 per cent increase in 1958 with a minimum of five cents an hour, and an increase of 3.46 per cent in 1959 with a minimum of five cents an hour.

There also is an escalator cost-of-living arrangement with the September 1955 consumer price index as the floor and no ceiling. UAW workers now are paid from $1.61 to $2.45 an hour. The average is $1.91.

GE spokesmen said negotiations are continuing with the AFL International Machinists Assn. and the AFL International Union of Operating Engineers, both of which are represented among employees at the plant.

Woman Proves She Can Handle Purchasing Job

CINCINNATI (AP)—Mrs. Etta M. Mayer apparently has won her contention that a woman can handle the job of assistant city purchasing agent of Cincinnati.

Last December the city Civil Service Commission upheld a decision by purchasing agent John Kreig that the job of being his assistant was not one for a woman and she was barred from competing.

Mrs. Mayer protested and the commission reversed itself and allowed Mrs. Mayer to take an examination for the position.

The results, announced yesterday, showed Mrs. Mayer with 98.60 points, which was from 4 to 27 points higher than any of the three men who competed against her.

Cincinnati Parking Meter Repairman Confesses Thefts

CINCINNATI (AP)—Cincinnati city officials figured something was wrong a couple of months ago when parking meter collections suddenly dropped $700 a month under the average. They put police on the trail.

Yesterday detectives Richard Lobeck and Arthur Guard arrested James Louis Jeffries, 32, a city parking meter repairman, and said he admitted thefts of an average of $10 a day from downtown meters over the last eight months. He is being held for further investigation.

The detectives traced Jeffries through the fact he had become in the habit of paying $10 a day on an overdue department store bill except on the day he was assigned to work in the repair shop instead of in "the field."

They said Jeffries told them he took the money because of pressing financial problems. They declared, however, he owns his own home, has recently purchased another house and owns two automobiles.

Radio and Television

By RICHARD MANLEY
(Substituting for John Crosby)

The Corpse That Won't Lie Down

Prophets of doom have been hearing the theater's funeral ever since "The Beau's" Stratagem was put on at the John Street Theater, circa 1767. These alarmists regarded the theater as a litter case, sure to be done in by its first opponent. When the stereoscope bobbed up in our parlors, the carpers went into a danse macabre.

Confounded when the theater defied this gadget, they were cured into premature dirges by the tan-dem bicycle, the phonograph, the mute and vocal movies, radio, contract bridge, night baseball, harness racing, and other noises and nuisances too numerous to list here. Though muzzed up in brawls with these upstarts, the theater refused to turn up its toes.

THE KEENING of the grave-diggers reached a crescendo when television antennae started to flower on every roof. This miraculous contraption would give the theater its coup de grace in short order. There was some talk of a mercy killing, that the agony of the afflicted not be prolonged unduly. I regret to say many theater folk shared these ghoulish sentiments.

How could the stage compete with entertainment which could be viewed from the living room couch? Who would pay $2.00 for two orchestra chairs, buck cross-town traffic and be spiked by tardy arrivals when he could see Milton Berle for nothing, and slouch into the kitchen for a nifter if he already had a Buick?

The fears of these cravens were groundless. Instead of weaning people away from the theater, television is driving them back to it. More stage attractions survived July this summer than in any year in the last decade.

In flight from quiz shows, wrestling matches, Charley Chan, westerns, giveaways, soap operas and a mess of situation comedies consumed by commercials, credits and station breaks.

EXCISING 70 MINUTES from the original, deplorable practice under the best of circumstances, called for delicate surgery. Instead, most of the specimens subjected to promiscuous butchery, with acting to match. A man with size 10 feet is likely to limp and stumble in size 6 shoes. If he can walk at all, he is likely to shun the limelight.

A friend of mine recently posed to a 50-minute "Julius Caesar" is still in a state of shock, and goes around muttering, "This time to taunt France."

It might pull out of NATO if all A Park ave dowager who saw Lynn Fontanne in "The Guardsman" 30 years ago came down with the bends on witnessing its video variation. It's just as well Molnar is in his grave. Had he witnessed this mayhem I'm sure he would have brought down a Hungarian curse on all concerned.

My vertigo recurs when I think what may happen to "L'Aiglon," "Madame Sans-Gene," "La Dame aux Camélias" and "Cyrano de Bergerac" once they've been pruned to fit TV's straight jacket. But Mr. Kaufman's fix is not necessarily fatal. If shackled by time and sponsor, all he needs do is sue for more minutes. This is no

TELEVISION'S potential for amusement and instruction is great. The new medium cries out for adventurers and explorers, men undaunted by the unknown. But it cries in vain. Its partisans are dedicated to the tried and shopworn. "Imitation is the sincerest form of flattery," is the motto of this communicative club.

In aping the theaters, television has fashioned its own noose. I am moved to this morbid observation on reading that Joseph Kaufman has bought the telefilm rights to 104 plays by de Musset, Hugo, the younger Dumas, Sardou, Rostand, Giraudoux and other noted Gauls from La Societe Francaise des Auteurs et Compositeurs Dramatiques and that he proposes to bamboozle the peasantry with 60-minute and 90-minute abbreviations of same.

Easy, there, Mr. K. Don't crow too loudly over this coup. It may claw you into ribbons. Pause, and reflect on the wounds received by NBC's "Producer's Showcase," CBS's "The Best of Broadway," and the "spectaculars" loosed by Max Liebman.

These programs undertook to reproduce successful Broadway plays and musicals of other years. Necessary modifications presented difficulties to dismay any one save a Readers Digest editor.

The running time of a three-act play, exclusive of intermissions, is approximately two hours. TV's corruptions of some of these gems were jammed into 50 minutes, since 10 of the allotted 60 were

Man Gets Into Battle With Market Robbers

LOUDONVILLE, Ohio (AP)—A 49-year-old man, awakened by his barking dog, grabbed his pistol and got into a gun battle with two meat market robbers early yesterday.

The man, Howard C. Hoffmeyer, was shot in the left leg and apparently wounded one of the bandits as bits of hair and a hat was found on the scene.

The robbers had tied up James Kelly, 26, co-owner of a country meat market south of here. They escaped with $50.

Governor To Review Ohio National Guard

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Frank J. Lausche said he will fly to Camp Breckenridge, Ky., today for Saturday's review of Ohio National Guardsmen undergoing field training there.

On Saturday afternoon, the governor will return by way of Noble County where he plans to participate in the opening of a new section of U. S. 21.

Ohio's 37th Infantry Division, in addition to a regimental combat team and other units of the ONG, is taking its annual two-week training period at Camp Breckenridge.

Airport Not Hazardous

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state aviation board has declined to revoke the operating certificate of Elyria Airport. Two complainants from Elyria asked the board yesterday to revoke the certificate because of what they said were hazards to the community caused by the airport. The board said airport conditions and operating procedure "were not contributing factors" in the crash of a small plane at the airport last June 28. It added that a formal hearing on the revocation request was not warranted.

N.Y. Stock Quotations

NEW YORK (AP)—Quiet irregularity was the keynote of the stock market today in the early afternoon. The market moved narrowly both higher and lower at various times, but prices seldom got outside of a range of a point either way. Trading pace was well below Thursday's 1,560,000 shares. Among lower stocks were Bethlehem Steel, Goodrich, American Smelting, Allied Chemical, General Electric, International Paper, Southern Railway, and Standard Oil (NJ). Higher were Douglas Aircraft, RCA American Telephone, Kennecott Copper, Monsanto Chemical, Foremost Dairies, ACF Brill, Pennsylvania Railroad, and Texas Co. U. S. government bonds were lower.

"That's my Boy"

Many a newspaper carrier boy's dad points with pride to his son and says, "That's My Boy"... and he is justly proud of his son who has taken the responsibility and become a progressive young business man in the community.

The experience a newspaperboy receives plus the encouragement from his dad invariably results in an enterprising teen-ager getting the experience he will need in his future life... It is his first business venture and he really puts his heart into the job.

He becomes a salesman... he earns his own money... he appreciates the value of a dollar... he saves or buys things that he needs... it is the sense of responsibility every boy should have.

Encourage your boy to apply for the next open newspaper route in your locality so that he, too, may enjoy the many extra benefits and rewards for being a successful newspaperboy. Contact our Circulation Department about it.

NEW WURLITZER Electronic Piano
NOW AT SHELLHORN'S
A new concept in piano design and tone. It is a portable electronic piano. The 64-note key and action mechanism is similar to that used in a conventional piano, but it has neither strings nor sounding board. The tone is produced mechanically and amplified electronically. Just plug the extension cord into any 110 volt, AC outlet . . . and it's ready to play! The new instrument weighs approximately 70 pounds and is built into a durable, pebbled-finished carrying case. And here's another novel and remarkable feature that will suggest many educational uses . . . it can be played with earphones! When the earphones are plugged into the unit, the keyboard becomes silent and only the performer can hear it. He can play or practice for hours, any time of the day or night, without disturbing others in the house. Yet, when the earphones are removed, the instrument again becomes a full-toned piano.

Innovations in Galion's Schools Await Students

GALION — Galion pupils in both public and parochial schools will have several incentives to study in 1955-56 when they answer the first ring of the school bells and buzzers Tuesday, Sept. 6. This is the opening date for both the city school system and St. Joseph's School.

There is a new addition to St. Joseph's School, a diversified co-operative training course in the vocational department at Senior High School, an expanded school music program in the city schools, new teachers in both parochial and city schools, shining and renovated classrooms and many new classmates who have been moving into growing Galion.

Enrollment figures are up like other schools throughout most of the nation. From all indications and surveys, the enrollment will keep increasing for the next several years. Both city and parochial schools have done something about the overcrowded classrooms that have existed in the last few years.

THE GALION Board of Education has plans for the construction of two new elementary schools and the remodeling and expansion of Galion Senior High School. The project awaits the passage of a $995,000 bond issue by voters of the Galion school district at the general election in November.

One of the elementary buildings would be constructed on the west side of Galion and the other is to be located in the southeast section. Locations of the buildings have been determined from a survey of expected growth of the town and upon recommendation of the architects. Both buildings of 12 classrooms each will be so designed to permit future expansion if the need demands it and the buildings will be much alike. Each will have a kindergarten room, kitchen and all-purpose room with seating capacity of 250-300 to be used for community gatherings.

Extensive improvements to Senior High School include new construction and alterations to the present building. The new construction would include boys' and girls' lavatories, locker and shower rooms designed for present and future enrollment; storage facilities for gym equipment; business education department to include classrooms for typing, bookkeeping and business education, areas for business machines and newspaper and yearbook staffs; music room department to include large band practice room, individual practice rooms for ensemble, office and music library areas; new chemistry and physics laboratory with storage room and a new speech and dramatics room with removable partitions.

Alterations to the high school would include modernization of the heating system, rearrangement of partitions in the present building to provide a library reading room adjoining the present study hall, a clinic and faculty room, arts and crafts department, modern home economic food, clothing and homemaking laboratory; expanded administration facilities; relocation of the biology laboratory in adequate space; academic classrooms for English, math, history, language and other academic classes; remodeling and sub-dividing of the existing shop for space for industrial arts laboratories and new furniture, where needed, to supply new areas.

Under the expansion program which the bond issue covers, the West elementary - junior high school needs only a portable or temporary kindergarten room. A folding door partition provides future expansion of the existing departments.

Enrollment in the city system is expected to be up 142 pupils over last year's high of 2,441, according to figures from the office of Dwight L. Musselman, superintendent of schools.

THERE ARE 82 teachers in the Galion school system. Two more instructors were added to the staff, one for the diversified co-operative training program and one for the music department. An elementary teacher and an art instructor are still needed. As soon as a speech therapist and a remedial reading teacher can be secured, these specialists will be added to the faculty.

The new teachers this year are: Misses Marilyn Barr and Nancy Tracht, both of Galion, for elementary positions; Cornel Amnason of Cleveland for the diversified cooperative vocation training course; Fritz Drodosky, Richmond, and Thomas Myser of Bourbon, Ind., for Senior High School; Jesse West of Marengo and Lawrence Dawson of Fairmont, W. Va., for junior high school positions; Herbert Krichbaum of Ontario for the music department.

Under the new diversified co-operative training in trade and industrial education, students will have the opportunity of working in various industries for a half day and attending regular classes at school the other half day.

The music program will be expanded this coming year to provide more time for music in both grades and junior and senior high schools. Herbert Krichbaum is a new instructor employed to have charge of the high school vocal music and will assist Marvin Fegt with the band. In addition to high school vocal music, Krichbaum will have vocal music in the seventh and eighth grades. Miss Lenore Bowdle will take charge of music in the fifth and sixth grades and will have the ninth grade choir. She plans to start a string ensemble as a move toward the development of a string orchestra in the Galion schools.

ST. JOSEPH'S School, occupied since 1951, has a new addition of four classrooms and supply room which will be occupied this September for the first time. The addition was completed in the latter part of April, with exterior of Indiana limestone to match the main building.

Interior decorations of the new addition also correspond to those of the main building. With the new addition, there are now eight classrooms at the school which provides education for eight grades. Five of these classrooms will be used this year and the succeeding year use of another room will be necessary.

Enrollment is expected to increase from 203 of last spring to 215 or perhaps 225 when school opens in September.

The school has six teachers this year, two new ones having been added. Sister Mary Lisetta is beginning her 11th year in Galion as principal.

Due to overcrowding, pupils of the first and second grades had half-day sessions last year.

Morrow Fair Enters Final 1955 Program

MOUNT GILEAD — The 1955 Morrow County Fair today entered the last lap of a four-day schedule with the second and final session of harness races slated for this afternoon.

Only two afternoons of racing are being held this year at the Morrow fair with the traditional third harness racing program being replaced Saturday afternoon with stock car races.

Attendance at the fair Thursday was recorded at 2,961. So far this year, fair attendance has been lower than that reported for the 1954 exposition.

Yesterday afternoon's harness racing program was followed last night by a variety show, the Mardi Gras Revels, at the grandstand. Races this afternoon and a rodeo show tonight were to be today's highlights.

A county-wide contest to choose the healthiest boy and girl will get under way Saturday morning and during a parade at noon Saturday, the health contest and Junior Fair class winners will be honored. There will not be an evening program Saturday and the fair will close following the afternoon stock car races.

Break-In Reported

MOUNT GILEAD — Officials at the fairgrounds here where the annual Morrow County Fair is in progress this morning reported a break-in at the race secretary's office. Three windows were broken in the office. Some passes for horsemen were the only items reported missing.

Water Rates To Rise

MASSILLON, Ohio (AP) — Water rates here go up a minimum of 85 cents a month this month under a new contract the city has signed with the Ohio Water Service Co. The minimum was increased from $1.25 a month to $2.10 and decreases the amount of water allowed under the minimum fee from 275 cubic feet to 210. The city continues to get free service to 700 fire hydrants.

Two Automobile Owners Report Pilfering of Cars

Two cases of auto pilfering were reported to Marion police Thursday. At 7:18 p.m., Mrs. Glen Morgan of 643 Universal Ave. reported the right front hub cap on her car had been taken while the vehicle was parked at the parking lot of the W. Center St. shopping center. She told police the hub cap was valued at $4.

Richard Amrine of 1088 E. Center St. told police at 1:01 p.m. that the fender skirts and chrome fender extensions on his car had been stolen while he was working at the Marion Power Shovel Co. He said the car was parked in the Shovel Co. lot. No value was placed on the items.

Bucyrus Polio Victims Released From Hospital

BUCYRUS — Two Bucyrans have returned to their homes after treatment in University Hospital, Columbus, for non-paralytic poliomyelitis.

Don Widman, a Miami University senior and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Widman, returned home Wednesday after a week's treatment.

Mrs. Willard Aussenheimer also was released Wednesday after about 10 days' treatment. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Carter.

Both are reported making satisfactory progress.

One of the competitors in the London to Brighton (England) walk was 50-year-old Archie Brown who is blind. He covered the 104 mile distance in 23 hours and 17 minutes.

90 Farmers View Area in Crawford County's Air Tour

BUCYRUS — Approximately 90 farmers of Crawford and surrounding counties participated Wednesday in the first farm air tour ever sponsored in the county.

The tour, which included a 45-mile, 25-minute route to view over 500 farms and nearby towns, was sponsored by the Divide Soil Conservation District Board, which has headquarters in Bucyrus.

Two planes from the Baker Flying Service at Marion provided transportation for the farmers, many of whom were taking their first plane ride. A third plane from the Ohio Aviation Board made a few flights with guests from out of the county as passengers.

The tour was arranged as a public service to acquaint local farm and city residents with soil and water problems, which are visible from the air, Robert Mills, Soil Conservation Service technician, pointed out.

Civil Service Changes

Rules for Old-Timers

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Civil Service Commission today announced a change in its regulations to permit persons over 70 to take regular federal jobs.

Under the old regulations such persons could receive only temporary renewable appointments of up to one year.

A commission spokesman said the change does not affect the requirement for mandatory retirement at age 70 of any federal employee who has served at least 15 years, unless he is continued in service by a civil service or presidential order.

Bible Words
for Today

PHILIPPIANS 3:14—"I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus." (RSV).

What is the purpose of the Christian church? What goals is it trying to reach? We in the church need to constantly ask ourselves these questions.

How do we judge the effectiveness of our church? Is success based on the number on the church roll? Do we take excessive pride in successful financial campaigns? Do we ever stop to think whether our many activities are meaningful or if they are just busy work? Are we being helped at our points of need?

The church must state its objectives clearly. It must press forward toward the supreme goal which is the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. Not only personal lives but society as well would be redeemed if we would apply Paul's earnestness and sincerity of purpose to the solving of our problems—personal problems, problems of the family, education, conservation of resources, industry, government, and international relations.

Reporter Risks
Face for Story
On Fast Shave

TOKYO (U)—Some reporters take the damndest risks to get a story. Take Air Force Sgt. William J. (Sandy) Colton, reporter for the Pacific Stars and Stripes.

He read that New York barber Luigi Bochetti claimed a world record of 17 seconds to shave a customer.

Colton, 29, of Johnstown, N.Y., strode into a Tokyo barber shop. He waved a newspaper and demanded, "Who wants to beat this guy's record?"

Tomiji Suzuki, 30 years a barber, offered to try. But he took 24 seconds.

Suzuki questioned the accuracy of the watch used to time Bochetti. "I just don't think it is possible to shave a man in 17 seconds," he said.

"Whether it is or not," Colton said, passing a perspiring palm over his uncut but stinging face, "no one is using this pan ever again for a record try."

Bridges Worth 17 Million Are Under Contract

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—S. O. Linnell, state highway director, said today that in the first eight months of 1955, his department contracted for construction of 119 major bridges valued at more than 17 million dollars.

He said the bridges ranged in size from 20-foot structures to Cleveland's Innerbelt Freeway bridge. The Cleveland bridge, when completed, will be more than one half mile in length and will cost 10 million dollars.

By the end of the year, highway officials predicted, more than 200 bridges will have been placed under contract. That would exceed last year's record total of 188. Linnell said the increase is due to the general expansion of highway construction, and also to increased need for bridges and ramps in the construction of giant freeway interchanges.

Most of the new bridge construction is in connection with major road projects, and one of the largest of these is the re-routing of U. S. 25 in Miami County. Linnell said this project will require construction of 22 major bridges, to be placed under contract by the middle of 1956.

Among other major bridge projects which will be let this year, or on which design work now is in progress

The Fremont by-pass, rerouting of U. S. 6, Ohio 12 and Ohio 20 around Fremont. This project includes construction of an interchange where Ohio 53, also to be rerouted around Fremont is to intersect the new four lane by-pass.

Watches Stolen From 2 Homes Here, Police Told

Theft of two wrist watches under similar circumstances but at widely separated points was reported to Marion police Thursday.

At 4:45 p. m., Pearl Wilson of 1017 W. Center St. reported that his watch was missing. He told police he had wound it at his home at 10 p. m. Wednesday night and set it down, and when he went to look for it, the watch was missing.

At 4:58 p. m., Ray Mitchell of 119 Blaine Ave., told police he had wound his watch Wednesday and placed it in a chest of drawers. When he went to get the watch Thursday, it was gone. He told police there was evidence that someone had climbed in the bedroom window to obtain the timepiece.

Texas Posts His Teeth As Bond, Loses Weight

MADILL, Okla. (AP)—A Texas was brought before Justice of the Peace Charlie Grider on a traffic charge. Grider fined him $20.

The visitor told the judge he was broke and pleaded that the payment of the fine be postponed until his next payday.

"What do you have for security?" asked the judge.

The Texan searched through his belongings, finally asked if his false teeth would do.

"Three of them are gold," he added eagerly.

A week later the man returned, paid his fine and claimed his teeth.

"He sure was glad to get them," said Grider. "He said he'd lost 10 pounds on his soup diet."

Builders of Roof Blame Design for Its Collapse

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—A Toledo firm which built the Shelby, Ohio, Air Force warehouse whose roof collapsed Wednesday says the structural design was responsible, not construction.

George W. Lathrop & Sons, Inc., completed the warehouse four months ago at a cost of $5,878,000. Company officials said last night the 120 by 40-foot section which fell in was one of the first built. They said roof-support specifications used in that section were changed twice for the remainder of the building.

The Air Force has not yet issued a statement on the collapse.

Bad Check Artist Has $5,000 'Take'

LISBON, Ohio (AP)—A young man in a black T-shirt has collected about $5,000 on bad checks in this area during the past two days, Sheriff Howard J. Clark reported today.

On Wednesday he stopped at two banks in Columbiana and two others in Lisbon. Thursday he hit the same two banks here, one in Salem, and three truck service stations. Each of the checks was for at least $200.

Clark said the checks were on the Portsmouth (Ohio) Banking Co. Inquiries in Portsmouth showed the young man had represented himself as a contractor who wanted printed checks for making up payrolls. He deposited $30 in Portsmouth long enough to have the checks made up, then withdrew the money.

Union and Carey Firm Settle Picket Dispute

TIFFIN, Ohio (AP)—Fremont Local 357 of the United Assn. of Journeymen Plumbers removed its pickets from a school project at nearby Amsten yesterday just as a hearing was to start on an injunction against it. The hearing, to have been held before Seneca County Common Pleas Judge Ralph Sugrue, was on a motion to dismiss an injunction which forbade picketing at the school. J. F. Dible Co., plumbing contractors of nearby Carey, agreed to dissolution of the injunction and the union agreed not to picket Dible's projects until they meet in a conference to settle their differences.

All Rules Suspended

The only reason the Defense Department needed a code of conduct for prisoners of war was to calm down starry officers of the Army and Marine Corps in court-martial proceedings. They had been taking the attitude there could be no excuse for a man who went to pieces under systematic torture and sold his soul for a chance to quit suffering. Air Force officers had been more lenient in their attitude. The code, itself, will be useless as far as prisoners of war are concerned. It says nothing not already known concerning military conduct. As for morality and decency, no code is going to improve the character of men who go into military service without special equipment for bearing up under pressure.

No one knows what his breaking point under torture would be. The aim of the torture is to find out. Techniques for doing this have been developed down through the ages. Contrary to a general impression, there have been no recent improvements of note, other than the ruthless employment of brain-washing, a technique known to psychologists ever since Pavlov's 19th century demonstration with the dog that salivated whenever a bell was rung.

Devils who think up ways and means of reducing human beings to slavering beasts by systematic torture will have a chuckle out of the Defense Department's code of conduct for prisoners of war. When all rules are suspended, codes will make no difference. They never have.

Credit Where It's Due

The statistics reflecting the use of credit by U.S. consumers are being analyzed closely by both private and public experts these days with a view to finding the point where debt becomes top-heavy and potentially dangerous.

But when the experts have brought all their knowledge of income and debt to bear on the subject, there still remains one factor they cannot evaluate—the factor called confidence.

During the depression of the thirties when experts were trying to stimulate a return of purchaser confidence with "Buy Now" movements, it was lack of confidence that blocked their efforts. Potential buyers were unwilling to take on obligations they did not believe they could fulfill.

Today, there is confidence. It can be shown by statistics that the confidence is justified by the distribution of income, the rising standard of living and the ability of consumers to take up the slack in purchasing that was expected to cause a postwar depression and actually did cause a troublesome recession late in 1953 and throughout most of 1954. Then the buying tempo became brisk again.

Consumers continued to have confidence; that was the secret. But exactly what could cause them to lose confidence also is a secret—and is the key to the sound use of credit to put into consumers' hands in advance the multitude of things they are willing to pay for on credit.

One thing about the confidence factor in credit management is certain. The debtor must neither be permitted nor encouraged to obligate himself to pay more than he can hope to earn. Credit where it's due is a proved and useful device to keep mass consumption abreast of mass production. Credit where it cannot be justified undermines the confidence on which the whole credit structure depends for its stability.

Legal Dodge

James Marlow, writing for Associated Press, has pointed out something about witnesses who stand on the Fifth Amendment when refusing to answer questions in congressional hearings that is a source of endless confusion.

A witness cannot legally employ the Fifth Amendment to protect someone else, Marlow explains, but it is hard to prove this is his motive. Therefore, a witness who can land his friends in trouble if he answers leading questions put to him about Communism by the House Un-American Activities Committee, for example, may be advised by his legal counsel to stand on the Fifth Amendment and refuse to answer any questions at all.

His alternative would be to refuse to answer without citing the Fifth Amendment. This would result in his being cited for contempt of Congress and jailed. Understandably, lawyers paid to advise witnesses before congressional committees do not want their clients to go to jail.

Winston Burdette, the radio commentator who cleared his own conscience by admitting he formerly had been in the Communist conspiracy but had withdrawn, also gave the names of others who had been in the conspiracy. Some of these were immediately discharged from their jobs, although it is likely they too had withdrawn.

Had Burdette chosen to do so, he could have stood on the Fifth Amendment and refused to implicate his friends. When lawyers advise their clients to do this, to keep them from telling what they know about someone else, it is misuse of the constitutional guarantee against self-incrimination.

Man is the animal that intends to shoot himself out into interplanetary space, after having given up on the problem of an efficient way to get himself five miles or so to work and back each day.

Abuse of Privilege

By David Lawrence

Citizens Have Obligations as Well as Rights

A virtual insurrection against the Constitution of the United States is under way among some "left wing" groups in America.

It involves a studied effort to encourage actions in contempt of the Congress of the United States. It amounts to an effort to frustrate the legitimate activities of the committees of Congress in performing their law-writing function.

The latest outcropping of defiance has occurred in connection with the hearings of the House Committee on Un-American Activities which is seeking information concerning Communist infiltration and influence in the theatrical field.

Many witnesses not only are invoking the fifth amendment by refusing to testify at the New York hearings but are also crying out that the committee has no authority even to call them or investigate their activities. It looks like a concerted move.

This type of defiance was urged by Albert Einstein, but it has also been seconded by many "left wing" groups. Even the American Civil Liberties Union, which claims to be disinterestedly concerned only with violations of civil liberties, has questioned the right of a congressional committee to investigate and says the investigating function is limited only to enactment of "constitutionally permissible legislation."

IN ITS REPORT issued in December 1953, the union says in part:

"No legislature has any right even to 'expose' anything which is not pertinent to constitutionally permissible legislation, just as the executive and the judiciary have no right to exceed their respective constitutional powers."

But what is "constitutionally permissible legislation"? The Congress has a right to rewrite the Constitution itself and to submit the amendments to the people's legislatures. How can it get information on which to base amendments if its inquiries are to be confined only to the existing Constitution and laws permissible under that Constitution?

Sen. Hennings, chairman of a subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, has just issued a questionnaire preparatory to public hearings on the religion clause of the first amendment to the Constitution. Among its questions are the following:

"Do you believe the free exercise of religion protects atheists in propagating a disbelief in religion?"

"Speaking generally and considering the deep emotional nature of religious beliefs, do you feel that the present state of affairs in the United States with respect to the rights expressed in the religion clause is: excellent, good, fair, poor?"

Auto drivers who keep moving from one traffic lane to another I identify as hicks, unless they are cab drivers, who must keep moving to make a living.

Although some of my best friends are tennis players, or were, I never have been able to understand the fascination of the game for those who play it—something I cannot say about any of the other games I never played well, myself.

No one who listens to a description of what is in the works for telephone subscribers for 15 minutes ever again will think automation is something new in this country. The first dial phone was automation, and what is coming is super-automation.

For reasons that are good and sufficient, I assume that all educated foreign-born persons are better educated than Americans. The reasons: All the ones I've ever talked to were better educated than Americans.

The same paradox always occurs to me when Congress finally adjourns—that if it didn't knock itself off periodically, popular government would perish.

Baseball confirms my hunch that over-managing is one of the handicaps of many enterprises that would be better off if more reliance were placed on individual members of the team.

Among a lot of things that lead to disillusionment is the discovery that when you are doing your best it is only mediocre compared with the going standard for whatever it is you are doing.

Although I never could buy the idea that government would be better if it were manned by successful businessmen using business practices, I never have been able to think of any better solution to the problem of snafu in public affairs.

I think it was a better trick—and should have been a better story—when the late Sir Malcolm Campbell's son Donald hit an average of 202 miles plus per hour in a hydroplane than it was to break the sound barrier in an airplane.

Usually Congress steers clear of all investigations relating to the subject of religion.

It wasn't so long ago that the dismissal of J. S. Matthews as a member of the staff of the Senate subcommittee on governmental operations was forced by three Democratic senators because of an article about communistic influences in religion which he had written before he was employed by the committee.

From one end of the country to the other prominent churchmen denounced Matthews, though he merely exercised his right of free speech. Being politically responsive to such pressures, the Senate committee fined Matthews and wouldn't even grant him a hearing. Few protests came from the "totalitarian liberals" who have always been so quick to denounce congressional committees for allegedly tampering with constitutional rights of individuals.

THE COMMITTEE now headed by Sen. Hennings has, of course, a right to inquire into religious beliefs as they relate to freedom of religion and to get any information needed to strengthen the religion clause of the first amendment either by a revision of that clause or by such legislation under the existing clause as may be tested in the courts.

It is a safe bet that the "totalitarian liberals" will not attack the Hennings committee. They will continue to exhibit their hostility and to urge non-cooperation only when witnesses are summoned whose testimony might be of assistance in exposing the ramifications of Communist conspiracies.

These conspiracies have been proved to exist in certain sections of the theater, the movies, the press, the church, the schools, the labor unions and the government itself.

DESCRIBING the work of the House Committee on Un-American Activities for the last several years, Chairman Walters said in a formal statement at the New York hearings this week:

"The committee has made 48 recommendations for new legislation by Congress or the strengthening of existing legislation designed to aid the fight against this Communist conspiracy. All but four of these recommendations have been enacted into law in one form or another by the Congress of the United States."

The right of a congressional committee to acquire information is unlimited. Individuals have a right to refuse to answer and are protected by the fifth amendment within certain limits set forth by the courts.

Too many persons are abusing the fifth amendment by pretending they would be subject to self-incrimination when their real purpose is probably to conceal the illegal or improper acts of others. It is the duty of a citizen to furnish to his government any information he or she possesses about the Communist conspiracy against the United States if it involves the guilt of others.

It seems to me the trouble with summer is that we don't have time to get used to it, the way we do with the kind of hard-to-take weather that passes for winter and spring in the North Temperate Zone.

My family admits that the most useful service performed by a freezer is the storage of an adequate supply of commercially prepared ice cubes.

GRIN AND BEAR IT
By George Lichty

There seems no doubt the exhausting hours and endless details and worry of his work as majority leader, the toughest job in the Senate, brought on his attack July 2. He left the hospital Aug. 7 and is resting at home now.

Tall and full of drive, he is planning and preparing as hard as he can to return as majority leader when Congress comes back in January.

He may not make the grade and he knows it. If the doctors, after examining him next December, decide the leader's job would endanger him, he says, he will take his old place as another senator.

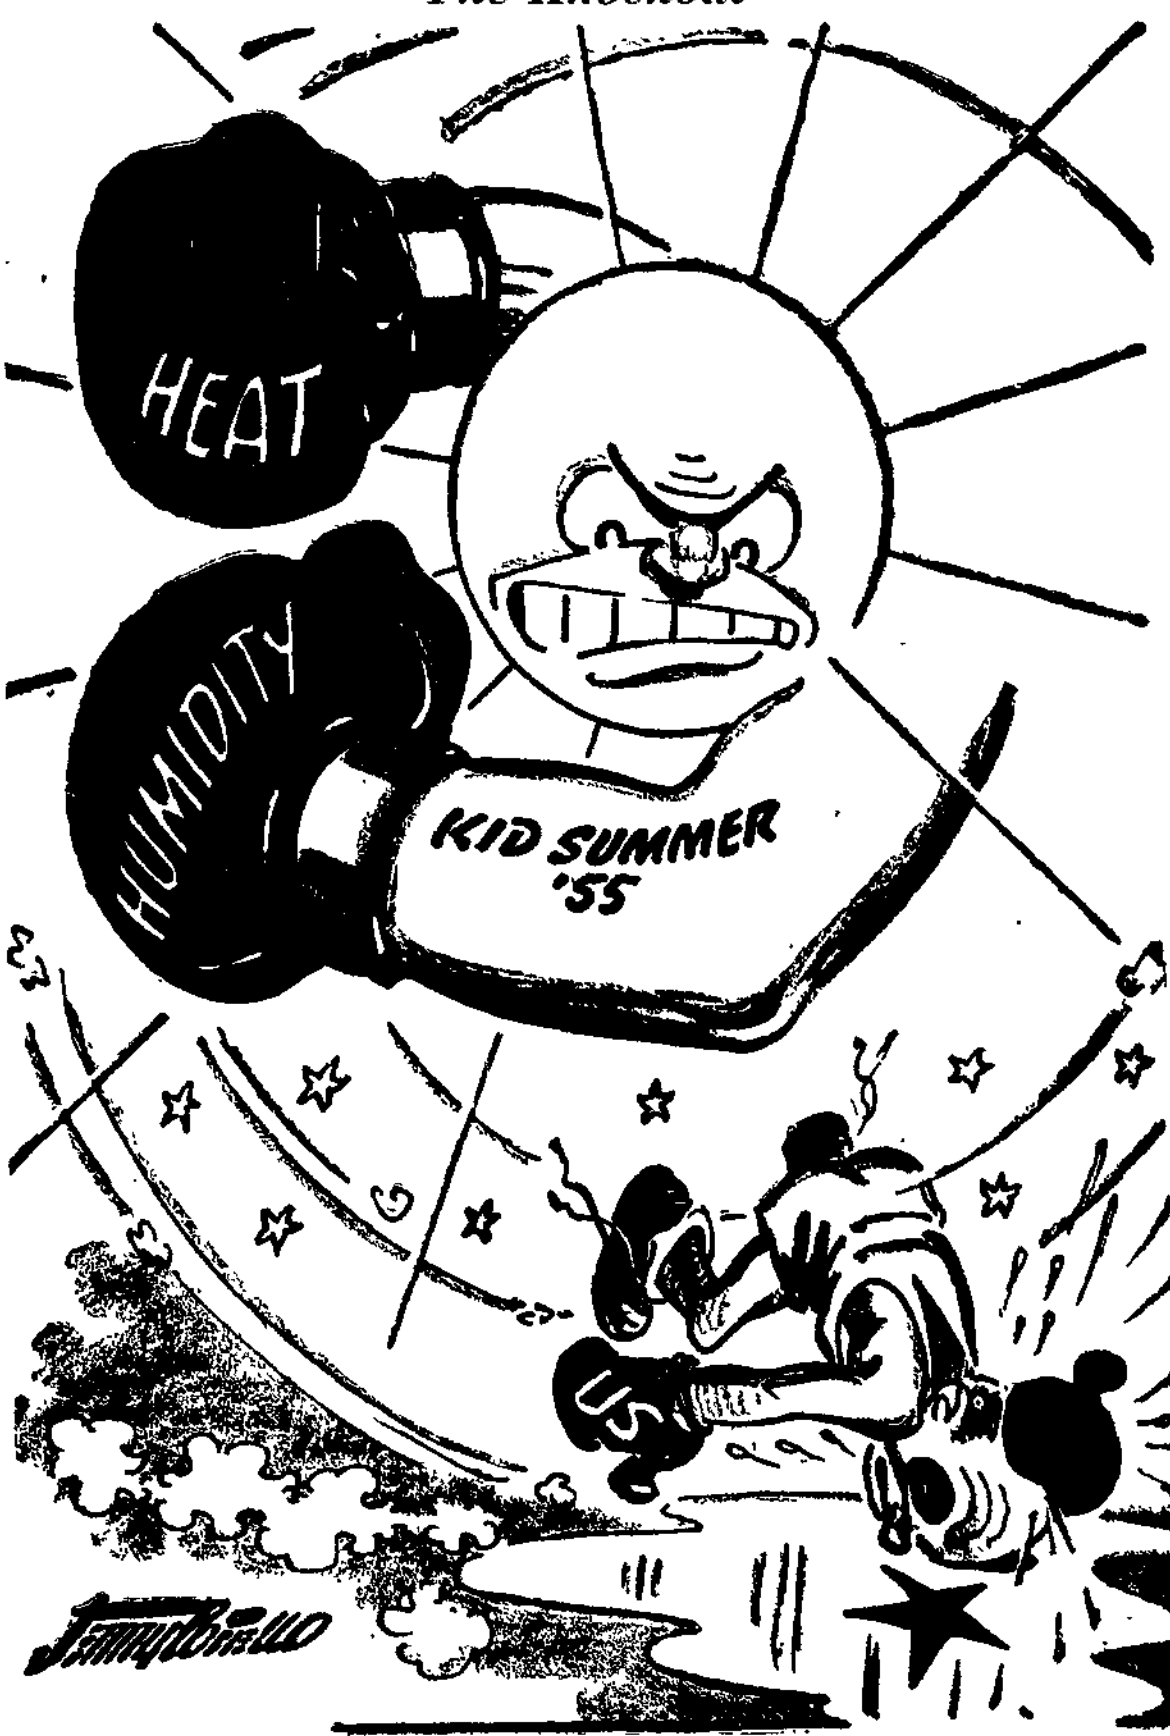

Johnson wasn't putting on an act when this writer spent 2½ hours with him Monday. He talked at top speed about himself, his background, his diet, the Senate session just ended and his plans for next year as leader again.

The doctors had let him walk around the top floor of his home Monday for the first time. He still can't climb stairs. He rests in one of those trick chairs that tilts the sitter back until he's almost lying down.

He weighed 200 pounds when he was stricken. Doctors told him he'd have to get down to between 175 and 185. He's down to 180.

... And the new car market will never be glutted, men! ... Every time we bring out a new model, 7 million people who HAD a new car got an old one!"

The Knockout

Congressional Spending Habit

By Raymond Moley

Congress in its sessions of 1953 and 1954 considerably reduced the requests of the President in his budget. The House did considerably better than the Senate.

This year's session, the first of the Congress elected in 1954, resulted in a stand-off with the President. In short, it was relatively the poorest record in three years.

The net figures are not encouraging to people who believe in economy. For they show that while the parties differ on many issues, both are committed to a permanent policy of inflation.

DEMOCRATIC leaders will claim that Congress for the first time in some years brought appropriations below 50 billion dollars and that it cut the President's requests by 2.05 billion, or 3 per cent. But this is a deceptive way to calculate the total bill the taxpayer must shoulder for the maintenance of his government in fiscal 1956.

The Tax Foundation, a most reliable recorder of the fiscal affairs of the government, points out in a summary of the 1955 appropriation record that "new obligation authority, which includes not only current appropriations, but also permanent appropriations, and loan and contract authorizations, will total 60.3 billion dollars, which actually exceeds January budget requests by 1.6 billion."

The Tax Foundation goes on to say: "Some of the cuts made by Congress are in items involving statutory commitments—such as the federal-aid highway program, unemployment compensation for Korean veterans and federal employees, etc.—for which later supplemental appropriations may be required. Also, Congress failed to make provision for federal employee salary increases. In all, supplemental appropriations of 500 million dollars may be necessary."

Many other reductions probably will not be reflected in comparable reductions in expenditures. For example, 296 million dollars out of the 350 million dollars in defense appropriations represent merely a bookkeeping matter involving use of foreign currencies; 350 million in reductions in Atomic Energy Commission requests were nullified by transfers from prior balances, and a separate appropriation to replace a substantial part of the transferred funds; a reduction of 563 million in foreign-aid funds is made largely meaningless by availability of recently discovered prior balances of 302 million and by reductions in items not intended for expenditure in fiscal 1956."

The net of this somewhat technical explanation is that if there is to be a balanced budget on June 30, 1956, it must come from the lush revenues in a period of boom or from restraints within the administration in spending what is already appropriated.

THE LATTER is a pretty slim hope. The former merely means that the better the times and the larger the revenues from taxes, the more government will spend.

A wise man once told a young man starting in life that he must never become a captive of his standard of living. For if he does, he will suffer the most galling loss of liberty.

He will not be able to tell his boss to go to blazes, no matter what the provocation may be. He will not be able to give up a job for one paying less, despite future prospects in such a change.

He will never have the feeling that he is secure against illness or economic tragedy. He will be chained by his love of things which he cannot prudently afford. It is exactly that situation in which our government finds itself.

Neither political party is willing to risk the anger of a spoiled electorate. Many members of Congress know that the country is spending more than it can wisely afford and would vote to change the course of appropriations. But they are terrorized and enslaved by a public which has accustomed itself to spending unlimited sums and which refuses to face the facts of life.

The government is and has been spending more than it can afford. On June 30 last spokesmen for the administration claimed proudly that the deficit was 300 million dollars less than it had estimated.

This was like a man who tried to explain to his worried wife that he was actually better off because he hadn't gone into debt as much as he had expected because he had found some money on the sidewalk. The real fact is that with bubbling prosperity our government ran into the red last year 4.19 billion dollars and had to extend the lifting of the ceiling on the debt limit. Furthermore, except for Sen. Byrd, the debt limit would have been lifted still further.

Despite this bleak picture, Congress checked the administration's determination to provide new debts for future years by ditching its school, highway, and natural resource programs.

This is small comfort and it may be only temporary. For the same proposals will be made as soon as Congress meets in January, and since 1956 is an election year, it will find Congress more rather than less liberal.

Johnson Preparing for Return

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON
Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, the Democrats' 47-year-old leader in the Senate is an inspiration for anyone who has a heart attack. He's just recovering from one but shows no sign of regret or self-pity.

There seems no doubt the exhausting hours and endless details and worry of his work as majority leader, the toughest job in the Senate, brought on his attack July 2. He left the hospital Aug. 7 and is resting at home now.

Tall and full of drive, he is planning and preparing as hard as he can to return as majority leader when Congress comes back in January.

He may not make the grade and he knows it. If the doctors, after examining him next December, decide the leader's job would endanger him, he says, he will take his old place as another senator.

Johnson wasn't putting on an act when this writer spent 2½ hours with him Monday. He talked at top speed about himself, his background, his diet, the Senate session just ended and his plans for next year as leader again.

The doctors had let him walk around the top floor of his home Monday for the first time. He still can't climb stairs. He rests in one of those trick chairs that tilts the sitter back until he's almost lying down.

He weighed 200 pounds when he was stricken. Doctors told him he'd have to get down to between 175 and 185. He's down to 180.

He seems determined to go the doctors one better on every order. They told him 2,000 calories of food a day would be enough. He's taking no more than 1,500. They said he must get eight hours sleep a night. He's getting nine. He was ordered to stop cigarettes. Now he eats hard candy with low caloric content.

Many a heart attack victim goes through a series of reaction: first, anger and dismay that it could happen to him; next, despair when he realizes his life must slow down; and finally adjustment to the idea that he can still lead a pretty full life, even at a slower pace.

Johnson said he had only two bad moments—both brief periods of depression—but then decided that because he has a strong will and a good head he could, by restraining his activity and his eating, resume a normal life.

He's already figuring on how he'll run the Senate in 1956. He'll work shorter hours—he used to work 15 a day—and pick other Democrats, say one per week, to handle Senate routine while he hovers around in case he's needed.

The Once Over

By H. I. Phillips

Rest My Eye!

President Eisenhower is taking his vacation in the Rockies, which means he is getting LACK of privacy in a higher elevation. He will fish, hunt and golf, sidelong, profile, three-quarters or full length completely surrounded. It is not really a vacation. Just a change of location for the movie every White House occupant knows, "Ordeal by Popular Vote" or "Life in a Pressure Cooker."

The Rockies are far from the Potomac, but Ike has as much chance to relax as a Yellowstone Park trained bear. Across the mountain ranges and sylvan streams rings the cries of "Just one more, please!" "Hold that pose!" and "Give us another smiling as if you were happy."

HE IS FISHING and golfing with the fullest co-operation of Eastman Kodak, the National Press Club, the Newspaper Guild, the American News Photographers Fraternity and the Affiliated - Never - Give - a - Vacationing - President-a-Break Clubs of North America. A president of the United States should have a "double" just as they do in the movies. If those Hollywood heroes can get a stunt man to undergo the tougher ordeals why shouldn't the chief executive?

Nothing that we have ever seen Burt Lancaster, Humphrey Bogart or Jimmy Stewart do is a greater danger to health than an American president is asked to do 365 days a year, vacation or not. Life with him is just one physical strain after another. It is an ordeal by pursuit, a test of ruggedness over required publicity and national curiosity.

IKE'S DREAM VACATION would be spent on his Gettysburg farm among the cattle and the chickens, with the complete privacy of the gentleman farmer. Nothing would give him as much relaxation as a chance to milk a cow in a nonpress conference atmosphere. But he is in a tough spot. He likes farming, an unkid fate has lured him into golfing, his doctor recommends fishing, the cameramen demand movie routines and the public insists that he suffer in late August the way all presidents have. He gets but one break. The newspaper arrives late, the speeches of the Democrats don't come through clearly and tropical hurricanes never reach Denver.

We are studying the press dispatches and photographs carefully in order to determine (1) whether his grip on the trout rod is correct; (2) how far back he goes on his backswing with a Silver Coachman fly; (3) whether he stands too close to his fish; (4) how near he comes to par on a 4,200 yard Colorado trout stream. (Remember, Ike, the minute the fish strikes, keep your head down and your elbows in!)

A VENDING CORPORATION plans to sell milk at gasoline stations. . . . Now for the high octane cow!

Eva Gabor has had her photo taken with Gino Prato, of $64,000 Question fame. . . . Ya just can't keep those Gabor gals out of anything. . . . Gino says he had only $300 in the bank up to the time he went on the quiz show and took down 32-grand. . . . The old motto has changed from "Stick to Your Last" to "Choose Your Category."

We think the namers of hurricanes lack imagination. . . . If they must be named after gals, why not GAIL and WINNIE?

Hear about the actor who joined the Communies because he was low man in a four-man acrobatic act and thought it the only way out? . . . Then there was the fellow who became a "Red" as a result of waiting all day in a producer's office only to be told at 6 p.m. that he wasn't in. . . . And the performer who joined up because he was for any form of violence that might be applied to the critics.

Three hundred dentists had their licenses delayed in Florida because so few volunteer patients showed up for the free tests. . . . Southerners are heroic but not that brave.

Oklahoma has had a production in Venice, and we suppose the song hits were "The Gondola With the Fringe on Top" and "Pigeons Will Say We're in Love."

Russia says it is ready to launch a spaceship. . . . Vodka as a fuel gives her a terrific advantage.

It had cost the entire south $60,000,000 according to estimates based on reports from various sections of the devastated area at New Orleans.

Nearly 4,000 persons gathered at the Marion County Fairgrounds for the annual picnic of the Marion Steam Shovel Co. employees and their families.

A former Marion pastor, Rev. P. E. Smoke of Columbus, spoke at the union service in Epworth Methodist Church. He was a former pastor of Calvary Evangelical Church here.

K. of C. Office Workers Get Contract, End Strike

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP) — A four-day strike of Knights of Columbus office workers is over.

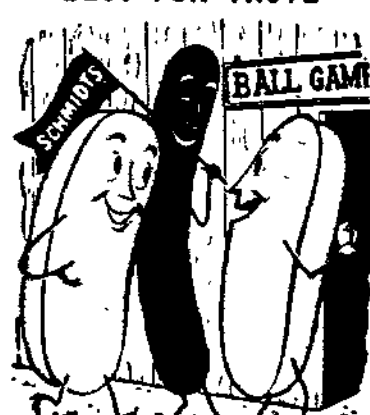

A spokesman for the AFL Office Workers Union announced the end of the strike Thursday after strikers accepted an offer from the Roman Catholic fraternal order.

Thus the workers obtained their initial contract with the K. of C. The contract provides a modified union security clause, an immediate wage increase of $2 or 3 percent a week and an improved system for arbitrating grievances.

The union says clerk-typists were getting $43 a week and stenographers $53 before the strike. The union said that the contract provides a package increase of about 16 to 18 cents an hour for the 200 workers involved.

Sewage Plant Report Studied By Councilmen

BUCYRUS — Renovation of the city's sewage disposal plant, which was built in 1937, is being studied here by city council and other city officials after a three-day survey conducted in June indicated that the plant is not functioning too efficiently.

Estimated cost of replacing equipment to improve the plant's efficiency is $52,000, according to a report submitted by Floyd G. Browne Associates of Marion, consulting engineers for the city. The report stated that the plant's inability to handle the amounts of grease coming into sewage is one of its main problems and that solids are being deposited in the Sandusky River, west of Bucyrus. During the last several years, numerous complaints have been received by the city from residents along the Sandusky River, southwest of Bucyrus.

Mayor Frank P. Sitler and Safety-Service Director A. L. Winter informed council this week that remedial steps will have to be taken to correct the situation before the state health department steps in. The officials said the state department already has asked for a copy of the Browne survey.

Construction of new sludge beds, costing $15,500, is expected to be started in the near future. Winter said the plant's capacity is for a city of 15,000 population and that it would work efficiently if "we had some method to take care of the solids coming into it." Bucyrus' estimated present population is around 12,000.

New Light Tank Packs Big Wallop

DETROIT (AP) — A new light tank that tops every other military vehicle in firepower has been developed at the Detroit Arsenal and ordered into production for the Army and Marine Corps.

Allis Chalmers Manufacturing Co. of La Porte, Ind. will begin production on the new tank in 1956 under a 13 million dollar government contract.

The Army said Thursday the tank, called "The Thing," carries six 106 millimeter recoilless rifles, four 50 caliber rifles and a .30 caliber machine gun. The tank carries a three-man crew and can be airborne. The tank weighs 8½ tons, has a maximum speed of 40 m.p.h., can climb a 60 per cent grade and go over a 2½ foot vertical wall.

Woman, 2 Sons Catch Trout With Fly Swatter

NEWBERRY, Mich. (AP) — With the help of her two sons, Mrs. John Johnson caught a 4-pound, 24-inch trout, with a fly swatter. Seven-year-old Steve spied the fish Thursday near the shore of Round Lake. He called his mother. She dashed out of the house with a fly swatter and took a cut at the trout. It jumped—right onto shore and between the legs of 12-year-old Johnny.

Fair Exhibit Will Demonstrate How Houses Catch Fire

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Want to see how a house fire can start? Of how quick your driving reactions are in an emergency situation? Monday, Aug. 29, has been designated health and safety day at the Ohio State Fair, and house fire demonstrations and driver reaction equipment will be among the features displayed. The fair will be held here Aug. 27-Sept. 2.

The Dayton fire department will set up what it calls "the house of hazards", a small, electrically operated dwelling in which fires can be started and means of combating and preventing them demonstrated.

The Ohio Trucking Assn. will have a mobile driver-testing laboratory outside the merchants and manufacturers building.

And if you're interested in livestock, the fair will display the largest show of beef on hoof in 20 years, said fair Manager Sam C. Cashman.

As of yesterday, 995 commercial cattle entries were received, compared with 600 shown last year, said Cashman.

Six national livestock shows also are planned.

A state fair worship service will be held 9:30 a. m. (EST), Sunday, Aug. 28, at the Fairgrounds Coliseum under supervision of the Ohio Council of Churches.

Three Ministers Quit Galion Posts

GALION—Galion is losing three pastors, it was announced this week.

The latest to resign is Rev. Turner Holt of the Church of Christ. He and his wife plan to remain in Galion. They will move to a private home from the parsonage. He came to Galion May 30, 1948, from East Liberty Christian Church. Rev. Holt's book was recently accepted for publication and may become associated with a nearby congregation.

Rev. Stanley Ellis, who has been pastor of the Four-square Gospel Church for the past seven and one-half years has accepted the position of superintendent of building construction of the Eastern District of Four-square churches. He and his wife and daughter, Patricia, plan to continue their residence in Galion. Rev. Ellis is being succeeded here by Rev. Horace Jackson, who comes from Bradford, Pa.

Rev. Jackson, his wife and three children will move into the church parsonage. The farewell sermon will be preached this Sunday by Rev. Ellis and Rev. Jackson will be in the pulpit on Aug. 28.

Rev. Dale E. Heath, who has been pastor of Free Methodist Church for the past five years, left this week for Rocky River where he recently was transferred. He and Mrs. Heath moved Tuesday. They came to Galion from Lexington, Ky. The pastorate here, his money was safest when he carried it with him.

who moved to Galion Thursday with his wife from Cincinnati.

Injured Sewer Worker Takes Money With Him

CLEVELAND (AP)—A 56-year-old sewer worker, injured in a cave-in yesterday, was found to have $8,400 in his pockets when he was taken to a hospital for treatment.

Philip Adams, suffered eight broken ribs and a possible lung puncture when walls of a newly dug sewer at a factory in suburban Parma tumbled down on him.

Neighbors said he had told them of being tricked out of some money years ago, and apparently believed his money was safest when he carried it with him.

Boy Badly Hurt in Fall From a Roller Coaster

CLEVELAND (AP)—Twelve-year-old Eugene Ruzmuk fell from a roller coaster in Euclid Beach Park yesterday and was taken to a hospital in serious condition with a fractured vertebra, a shoulder wound and possible internal injuries.

A cousin who was riding with him, David Caravona, 13, said he saw Eugene put his hands to his eyes and then tumble out of the car. Eugene hit the tracks and plunged on to the ground, a distance of about 7 feet.

A park spokesman said the cars probably were traveling between 30 and 40 miles an hour at that point.

Insurance Exam Set

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State insurance officials have scheduled examinations next week for certifying agents to handle multiple-line insurance, including both fire and casualty coverage. The new line was authorized by the 101st Legislature, effective Sept. 5. The tests are scheduled Aug. 22 in Columbus Central High School; Aug. 24 in Cincinnati City Hall, and Aug. 26 in the north section of Cleveland's public auditorium. Agents may also take the test during weekday working hours at the office of insurance Superintendent August Priatel, in the statehouse annex.

Ohio gains 38,000 people by immigration in an average year.
